REFUGEES TELL OF THE HORROR

Survivors of Porcupine Catastrophe Arrive at Toronto.

THRILLING EXPERIENCES

Young Newspaper Man From Guelph Amongst the Dead.

Toronto, July 14.—Further details of the awful disaster in Northern Ontario, with additional estimates of the dead running from 100 to 500, were brought to Toronto last evening by miners and prospectors, who arrived from the north on the Grand Trunk train from North Bay which reached Toronto at 11:15. Every man who was seen expressed the opinion that the death list will run up to at least 500. Many of those who stepped from the train last night were without any clothing except that which they wore, and most of them had no coats. Their boots were scorched white, showing where they had walked over the hot ground. Many anxious friends were waiting for the arrival of the train, and as the survivors stepped to the station platform they were at once surrounded and hurried away, some to hotels, some to private residences, and others hurried to Turkish bathhouses.

Saved His Cash.
 Mr. J. J. Moss, a mine operator from Reno, Nevada, was among those who saved their lives by standing shoulder deep in the waters of Porcupine Lake until the fury of the flames subsided. He said that fully 400 people fled to the lake, and expressed the belief that twenty or thirty in his vicinity had drowned. He joined a party of seven of the Imperial Bank staff, who had placed the gold and money belonging to the bank in a canoe to save it. It took all the strength of the eight of us to prevent the canoe from being swamped by the waves, said Mr. Moss. His clothing showed the effects of the long immersion in the rough waters of Porcupine Lake. Mr. Moss, however, had been able to save his values and their contents by burying them in a rat in one of the streets of South Porcupine.

R. Brown, news agent on the train which arrived last evening, came through from Englehart. In addition to the people who were on the ground when the fire broke out, he said, "there were 300 prospectors who had arrived on Saturday and Sunday, and they were all going into the woods. They must have perished. On Wednesday night 55 people slept in a Pullman car at Cochrane, while others slept in the T. and N. O. station in day cars, box cars, and cattle cars. They were glad to get anywhere in order to snatch a few hours' sleep." When he left the north 27 bodies had been taken from the Dome Mine. Five or ten more were in sight, but had not been taken out. Matheson was completely cut off by the fire. Coming down from Englehart to North Bay the train passed through a section of the country which is burned over, and the heat from the ground was so intense that both side of the coaches were scorched. The fire had passed over that area on Tuesday, but the ground is still burning, and will burn for months unless there is a heavy rain. Stanley Nicholson, whose name appears among the list of dead at South Porcupine, is a young newspaper man who was very well known in Toronto and Guelph. For some time he was a reporter on the Guelph Herald, but severed his connection with that paper to take a higher position on the Mercury in the same city. He also conducted a typewriter and supply office in Guelph. He moved to South Porcupine a few months ago, where he established a news agency, and acted as correspondent for the Mail and Empire. Only last week he sent to this paper a story of the fire at Kelson, and at the Dome Mine.

Nicholson was 28 years old and had been married about two years. His wife at present is in Toronto.

AVIATOR KILLED.
 Chicago, Ill., July 14.—J. A. Kremer, an amateur aviator, fell 75 feet with his airplane yesterday, while testing tests for a pilot's license, and was killed. His engine fell on his back, crushing him.

SCAFFOLD COLLAPSED

Nine Montreal Workmen Taken to Hospital at Once.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, July 14.—Nine men were taken to the General Hospital yesterday afternoon as a result of the collapse of a scaffold on which they were working at the harbor commissioners' new elevator on the river front, at the foot of Bonsecours street.

The men fell from a height of about fifteen feet, and while seven of them escaped with cuts and bruises, two of them sustained broken legs, and will have to remain in the hospital. The others were treated in the out-door department and sent to their homes. The most seriously injured were: Milton Yavarsky, 29 years old, St. Charles-Bonneville street, leg broken; Jake Lashorevitch, 28 years old, St. Justin street, leg broken.

GOOD ROADS EVERYWHERE.

Washington, D. C., July 14.—With nearly 15,000 miles of transcontinental interstate and trunk line highways contemplated in various sections of the country, all the plans are carried out it soon will be possible to drive wagons or automobiles from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from British Columbia to Mexico, and from Canada to Florida. The United States, officers of public roads have prepared a chart of improved roads, containing a plan of actually under construction, showing a great network covering the whole country.

STEAMERS ARRIVED.

New York, July 14.—Arrived: Lexington, from Liverpool; Thompson, from San Francisco; Santa Anna, from Panama; Florida, from Mexico; Genoa, from Boston; Montreal, from Montreal; Antwerp, from Antwerp; Arrived: Niagara, New York; Port-au-Prince, Montreal; Madeira, from Madeira; Boston, from Boston; Arrived: Hamburg, New York.

A RICH HARVEST FOR PICKPOCKETS

Names of Many Persons Whose Pockets Were Picked on G. T. R. Trains.

HOW THE TRICK IS DONE

One Man Takes the Valuables and Passes Them Along to a Confederate, the Police Say.

Further evidence of the cleverness of the gang of pickpockets who are working the trains in this district, is being constantly received.

Londoners, although they have suffered considerably, are not any worse off than residents of other places. It is learned that several Woodstock people have lost money and valuables on the report that John Gibson, of Mossley, while at Woodstock station on Wednesday, lost $35 in cash and a check for $50. John Gibson, of Mossley, lost $25.00 at Woodstock. Simon Leslie, of Delawar, lost $15, and John O'Neil, of Dorchester, $3.

The local detectives are confident that there are a number of men in the gang.

How It Is Done.
 "One man takes the money from people's pockets and passes it quickly to a confederate," said a detective. "Then in case one is caught nothing is found on him by which he can be identified. Other members of the gang hang about where they can see people who have money getting their tickets and putting their purses back in their pockets. They watch closely and see where the money is put and tell their pals. There is no doubt that the gang operating through this district is a professional one, probably men from across the line, who have been operating there and have come across here to keep out of the way for a little while. People travelling cannot be too careful. The men in the gang are apt to be well dressed, smooth looking individuals, and persons whose ordinary people would think the last people in the world likely to be trying to rob them."

HON. T. NOSSÉ DEAD.

Ottawa, July 14.—Word was received today of the death in Tokyo of Hon. T. Nossé, formerly consul general for Japan in Canada. After leaving Canada he was governor of Zeudra Nambie Province in Korea, which has a population of a million and a half souls. Some weeks ago he got leave to proceed to Tokyo, as he was suffering from a facial affection. This developed into malignant cancer, which resulted in death. He was only 55 years of age.

BURNS COMING BACK WITHOUT SUSPECTS

Does Not Think Kaplan and Schmidt Are in England.

[Canadian Press.]

London, July 14.—Detective William J. Burns, who came here some weeks ago, was thought in connection with the bombing of the Los Angeles Times building, left Bristol yesterday on board the steamship Royal George, bound for Montreal. He was accompanied by his wife.

Detective Burns visited Scotland Yard several times while in London. He expressed the opinion that the Los Angeles suspects, David H. Kaplan and Milton A. Schmidt, are not here.

TURMOIL AT LIMA

Two Killed in Demonstration Following Opening of Deputies.

Lima, Peru, July 14.—The opening of the preliminary sessions of the chamber of deputies yesterday afternoon was made the occasion of a demonstration, in which two persons were killed and several wounded.

Dr. Miquiguela, the president of the chamber, presided. The Government failed to send a guard to keep order, but several secret police acted in the place of the troops. When the deputies were leaving the chamber trouble arose. There were cheers for the Government and cries of "death to the congress." Hand-grenades of various sizes were fired, which resulted in the killing of two and the wounding of several persons. None of the deputies were injured, but Dr. Miquiguela's hat was smashed by a stone.
