Oats in Good Shape, but Fruit Has Been Badly Neglected.

[Special to The Advertiser]

Zurich, Aug. 10 .- A trip through a portion of Hay Township recently revealed the fact that the crops will not be up to their former standard. Oats, stimulated by late rains, will yield average grain, but the straw will be short. Apples will be short, owing principally to lack of care. The trees need pruning and the ground should be cultivated.

Mangols, corn and beans look well in places, but many bare spots are to be seen throughout the fields. Potatces and cabbage promise well. Flax pulling is about firished. There are two flax mills in the village. These mills give employment to many people in the field in summer and in the mills in winter.

Among the recent visitors were Prof. Tom and family, of Goderich. Mr. C. C. Lee, merchant and owner of the Sunset Hotel, Goderich, who was seriously injured some time ago by an auto accident, near St. Joseph, has been taken to his home. Mr. Bender sold his Percheron stal-lion last week to a party from London. The price, it is said, was about $1.25 per pound. The horse weighed Mr. Oliver Johnston, license inspector for Centre Huron, and a resident of Clinton, paid a visit to his brother,

Mr. Thomas Johnston, recently.

The new principal of the public school hails from Egmondville. His name is Andrew W. Archibald, and he holds a first-class certificate.

Mr. E. Zeller, editor of the Zurich Herald, has returned from his trip to Northern Ontario.

Mr. Wellington Johnston, of Detroit, Mr. Weiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Johnston.
Mr. G. R. Keys, of Clinton, representing the Canadian Foresters, is here recruiting for Court Zurich, No.

ON TRAIL OF "PLUGGERS"

Welland, Aug. 9.—Samuel B. Mor-ris, of Buffalo, locked up here, charged with voting twice fraudulently on the hydro-electric bylaw on Aug. 6, was today remanded until Aug. 13, and remains locked up. Detective Greer is here securing evidence. It is claimed about ten pluggers were brought from Buffalo to vote, but only one was captured, and the citizens are anxious that the whole plot should be laid bare, and those who brought the Buffalo men here punished. p.m.-"THE CARDINAL VIRTUES." There is great excitement and interesting developments are expected.
