[Special to The Advertiser.] ERIE, Pa., June 16.—Erie came to the front with their usual number of misplays this afternoon, but despite this they sent the league leaders down to defeat by a score of 8 to 5. The Yanks muffed the horsehide at every opportunmuffed the horsehide at every opportunity, and in all, four miscues were checked up to their discredit, but London failed to take advantage of these bad plays. It was the sixth game the Yanks had played with London, and the second victory they had been able to grab off.

Eric Hit Heck in Pinches.

Erie Hit Heck in Pinches.

For the first time in many days, Erie hit the ball in pinches, and this was responsible for their victory. Morse started for the locals, and kept London's hits well scattered until the seventh. Then Mulin leaned against him for a single, and Snyder and Heck each chalked up home runs to their credit. It was here that Manager Gygli jerked Morse and trotted Brown out to the mound. He retired the visitors without the aid of the fire department, but in the eighth, the fire department, but in the eighth, the London crew donned their batting togs again and found his twisters for a nice little bombardment that netted them two States.

Deneau's Single Lead Attack Timely Hitting With Men on on Kirley in Final Session, Netting Four Runs.

TORONTO, June 16. - Some of these gays the Leafs and the Beavers will win a game on the same day, and the fans will then believe that there does not exist a working agreement between the two for one to lose while the other wins. Down in Jersey City the Leafs showed the Skeeter fans how to hit, while at the Island Stadium the Beavers did just the opposite, and lost the second game of series to Brantford by 5 to 2. The struck out, but a wild pitch by Kirley allowed Burns to trot to third. Ivers was also given a free pass, and worked a double steal with Burns, the latter scoring. Dolan struck out, Hits were singled over second base, and Killilea was given a life on Taylor's error, and took second on Schultz's out at first. Isaacs then singled over second base, and Killilea came home with the Beavers' first run. Harkins filed out. The locais took the lead in the eighth on Moseley's three-base hit, followed by Trout's sacrifice fly. With a one-run lead, and Kirley going strong, it looked as if the Beavers' would hold their lead. Such was not the cash however. Burns, the first man pin the Brants' half of the minth, was hit by a pitched ball, and sacrificed to second and Dolan. combined with errors by Roseley Isaacs, Kirley and Schultz, gave the visitors four runs.
