London, July 29, 3:40 p.m.-British troops yesterday made progress to the north and northeast of Pozieres and near Highwood, it was officially announced today. Gen. Sir Douglas Haig also reported that two desperate German counter-attacks against Delville wood were repulsed.

The text of the British official statement follows: "Last night the enemy made two more desperate efforts to recapture Delville wood, but he again was repulsed on each ocsion with heavy loss. "A hand-to-hand struggle north and northeast of Pozieres and in the neighborhood of Highwood continues without intermission and we have made progress in all three places, despite violent op-position by the enemy. "Since yesterday the artillery fire of both sides has increased in

There is abundant evidence to show that the losses inflicted by on the enemy in the last few days have been extremely severe, particularly in Delville wood, where two or three regiments appear to have been annihilated."

U.S. COURTS DECIDE THAT APPAM MUST GO TO OWNERS NOT TO FOE'S PRIZE CREW

[Canadian Press.] Norfolk, Va., July 29.-Federal Judge Waddill today decided the libel proceedings for possession of the captured British liner Appam In favor of the English owners and against the German prize crew which brought her here.

The court held that the German government lost all legal claim to the Appam and her cargo as prizes when Lieut, Berg and his prize crew, on last Frebruary 1, brought them into the neutral waters of Hampton Roads with the intention of "laying up" the vessel indefinitely.

GERMANS GIVE UP POSITIONS.
[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, July 29.—Via London, 4:55 p.m.—After repeated futile attacks northwest of Lutsk, says the German official statement issued today, the Russians succeeded in penetrating the German lines in the region of Tristyn, and caused the Germans to give up their advanced positions, which they had previously held beyond the river Stokhod.

West of Lutsk, the statement adds, the Russian attack has been brought to a standstill by a German counter-attack.
