Streets-Will Go Soon. The franchise for the unsightly gar-bage cans that have not beautified Lon-don's streets for a decade has expired, but the cans are still there. Just why this should be is not known. It has not been hinted that some of the alder-men have passes for the theatre that controlled the franchise, but it is strange to the ordinary observer that the cans are still on the streets, when there is no franchise and no permission has been given the owners since September to so clutter the highways.
