Ottawas' Lead Maintained Against Ross Cohorts At Capital.

Montreal Feb. M.—Canadiene made an important advance in the Nationa Hockey League race when they deeated the Toronto St. Patricks at the Mount Royal Arena Saturday evening winning a fast and closely-conteste game 5 to 3. The victory, for the time being at least, reduces the threat of the St. Pats to take second place in the gin of three points over the Irishmen and being but one point behind the leading Ottawas, who defeated Hamilton Saturday night.

While winning the week-end battle, Canadlens had no easy time and it was not until after fifteen minutes of the final period had elapsed that Odie cleghorn scored and finally left the issue safe for the French Canadlen team. It was a stellar rally by the visitors in the second session that tightened the game and provided the large crowd with an excellent exhibition. In the opening period Canadiens outplayed St. Pats, peppering Roach with shots, and it was only the brilliant work of the Toronto goalkeeper that kept the locals score to 3 to 0 in the first period. The line-up:

Canadiens—Goal, Vezina; defence, S. Cleghorn and Couture; center, O. Cleghorn; wings, Joliat and Boucher; subs, Berlinquette, Pitre, Malone and Bell.

BRITISH RUGGER

Associated Press Despatch.

Edinburgh, Feb. 10.—Scotland's classic rugby game under the Scottish Union took place at Myreside Park this afternoon, when the city's ancient rivals, Edinburgh University and the Watsonians battled it out before a large crowd. The University's game this year has been indifferent, and predictions were that the Watsonians, who have been playing an excellent brand of rugby, although not up to the standard of previous years, would be victorious. The result, which shattered all prognostications, was a complete surprise, bringing as it did a triumph for the students by a score of 10 points to 6.

Kitchener Must Beat Varsity and Argos To Maintain Lead.

REDMEN HOLD SPOT of Wiarton-Stratford Series Should Provide Intermediate Champs.

Anything may happen in any of the three series of the O. H. top of the heap. It's the intermediate race, however, that is shaking out to a point where all the fans are interested and busy with the dope book, and the Wiarton Stratford mix holds the spotlight. It's taken for granted that Sarnia won't overcome the Indians' big lead, and they'll probably have to send a search party north after the Listowel crew in their return game with the Redmen. So the two scalp-chasing outfits are sure to settle their rivalry and provide what is certain to be as tidy battling as will be seen in the finals. The survivors of the tilts at Wiarton on Wednesday night and Friday night at Stratford are sure finalists and it's about an even toss. Forest back-checked well and used their bodies to advantage, but they were below par at the passing game was formed worked in offen on two and three men rushes, some great work in the Forest nets by Burke keeping them with Minnell a close second. Todd, on wing for Forest, was one of the most effective men on the ice, but he had little support. Doolittle and Kimball were effective. Watford scored once in the second period and three times in the last, Forest getting their counters in the second and third. Harper Kinnell, Trenouth and Steamman scored for Watford, Todd and Kimball being the Forest marksmen.

1883 - 1923The Birth of Efficiency

For many centuries, the progress of civilization was hindered by the primitive methods of production; and the vast opportunities of world commerce lay dormant, awaiting the development of man's

With the 19th century came the awakening and the great inventions utilizing steam, and electricity galvanized the world into a throbbing, energetic universe of production. It was the Spirit of Invention and the Birth of Efficiency. 40 years ago, Lewis Edson Waterman invented

Waterman's Ideal

Fountain Pen And the first Waterman—made from hard wood—was the same in principle, as the smooth, easy, efficient pen of to-day. Through 40 years of service, the traditions, quality and workmanship have been maintained; and the Waterman organization has grown from its tiny pen corner" in a shop on Fulton Street, New York, to five great factories which supply the world with millions upon millions of pens every year. Many changes have come to this old world of ours since the first birthday of Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen; but the efficiency of this pen shines steadfast and true in the present great age of advancement. There are many styles for character; but only one
