

ST. THOMAS JUNIORS LOSE TO WOODSTOCK

Fumble Chance of Certain Try in Dying Moments Brings
6-2 Loss.

PLAY IN DRIZZLE

Special to The Advertiser.

St. Thomas, Nov. 13.—The St. Thomas college junior squad lost their first game of the semi-finals to Woodstock juniors by a score of 6 to 2. The blue and white had the game in the last period, when Peacock's fumble behind the goal line tallied a rouse instead of a touchdown.

The game was played in a drizzling rain, and the spectators huddled under the eaves of the bleachers. The field was very heavy and neither side could get away with the ball. The visitors, however, were the better team, the blue and white being in the visitors' territory. Peacock, center half, after making a nice run with the ball, was injured and had to be replaced by Broadbent, spoiling the combination.

The second half opened with the locals playing against the wind. However, they used their heads in the first part, and a dribbled kick and a neat bit of work when the blue and white kicked the ball, gave them a nice start towards the Woodstock goal. Art Lockhart came clean with an end run but a penalty for interference turned the tables against the locals. The home team scored in the first quarter, completing the scoring for the visitors.

Three quarters time gave the locals the wind, but it wasn't till the last five minutes of the quarter that the locals found he could make good use of it in extending his kicks. Several on-side kicks in quick succession made the odds look small, and gave Peacock a chance to score. He crossed the goal line all right, but dropped the ball in the scrimmage, making the difference between victory and defeat.

The mainstay of the game in all the Woodstock part of the field, with the S. T. C. claiming a distinct advantage of kicks. The junior players are confident that they will win the return tilt at Woodstock on Wednesday or Friday of next week when the powers that be decide the date.

The line-ups were:
St. Thomas: Flying wing, Knight; halves, Broadbent, Dale, Neil; quarter, Graham; snap, McNally; insides, Peacock, Wagner, middles, Sharpe; cadans, outside, Thompson; subs, Addy Campbell and Curtis.

Woodstock: Flying wing, Milburn; halves, Allan, Lockhart, Solist and Atkinson; quarter, Sinclair; snap, Grant; insides, Brooker, middle, McLeod; ends, Brandt, Lockhart; subs, Corrigan, Vogan and Smith.

Referee—M. M. Hood of Woodstock. Umpire—Kammage, St. Thomas.

Junior Gridders Are Strong For Stratford Tilt

Western and Intermediate Stars Added For Game With Apprentices.

The local junior gridgers have been strengthened for their exhibition tilt with the C. C. W. Apprentices on in Stratford this afternoon with the addition of several Western players and intermediate stars who are still eligible to play junior football.

The Apprentices have a strong aggregation that in all probability give the hostered locals a tight battle, and interest has been aroused to fever heat in the classic tilt, which the locals are expecting an extra attraction in seeing Vio Wong in the game, but he will be unable to make his debut as he does not have the necessary permits.

The struggle will not be lessened by the absence of the fans who will be the chance of witnessing several stars of the O. R. F. U. intermediates and the Western Intercollegiate intermediates in action.

The locals will probably line up as follows: Flying wing, Churchill; halves, Warren, Martin; outside, Little, Pollard; insides, Ellis, White; middles, Alexander, Scott; ends, Miller, Macfarlane, Fitzmaurice; subs, Heard, J. Fitzmaurice and Turville.

EX-LONDONERS GO GLINTS AT WOODSTOCK

Second Baseman Clyde Beck of the Los Angeles team of the Pacific Coast league, is to become a member of the Chicago Cubs—but not until next year. That announcement was made by President Patrick of the Los Angeles club last week. It is understood that Beck, who has been with the Cubs, would have liked to have had the job for 1926, but Patrick insisted that Beck also play shortstop.

George Burns, veteran outfielder, last week was given his unconditional release by the Phillies. He joined the Philadelphia team going for the Cincinnati Reds. Burns was a star for many years with the Glants, and played two ball the early part of last season with the Phils, but slowed up in his batting as the season progressed. He was with the Glants in 1911. The chances are Burns will become a minor league manager or go to play as an emergency man with some major league team.

John (Beans) Reardon takes his place as another umpire whose contract was worth a fortune. According to word from Los Angeles, the young Pacific Coast league umpire has been sold to the National league. Reardon got his start in the Canadian league and made a good impression on the coast last season. At that time, it was said he was to go to the National league, but John Heydier apparently felt that he needed another season away from the majors.

Joe Cantillon, who has many friends last week in Chicago when he was married to Mrs. Bertha Anderson and played the wedding took place at the home of the bride. Cantillon, the man who was manager of Washington when the "Annie" prettified in and later managed the Minneapolis team of the American Association for many years, is now personal representative for Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, and also does some scouting.

Hervey McCallan, shortstop of the Chicago White Sox, died at Cynthiana, Ky., Nov. 6, after a six-month illness. He was operated upon in Chicago for stomach ailment just before he left for his home in Cynthiana. He was 31 years old, and began his career with the Cynthiana team in 1911. He was a star for the Western league and it was from there that he got his chance to play for the White Sox. When the series was played this fall, his mates put him in at $400.

Bill Clymer, coach for the Cincinnati Reds last year, and as manager of the White Sox, died at Cynthiana, Ky., Nov. 6, after a six-month illness. He was operated upon in Chicago for stomach ailment just before he left for his home in Cynthiana. He was 31 years old, and began his career with the Cynthiana team in 1911. He was a star for the Western league and it was from there that he got his chance to play for the White Sox. When the series was played this fall, his mates put him in at $400.

Changes have also started in the Chicago Cubs. Last week it was announced that Outfielder Denver Grigsby had been released to the Kansas City club of the American association, while Tommy Griffith, a veteran fly chaser, who went to the Cubs from Brooklyn, drew his unconditional release. Grigsby went to the association team as part payment in the deal by which Outfielder Floyd Scott went to the Cubs. Grigsby was a former Texas league player who had been with the Chicago team two seasons. He broke his collar bone last year in the exhibition period prior to the opening of the regular season.

Whether or not Harney Dreyfus ever had any idea of getting Eddie Moore out of the majors on waivers, the Pirate club has been told that he will be out of seven clubs in his own league ready to take the youngster. It had been reported that Harney had been sent Moore to San Francisco as one of the players in the Warner-Hyne deal. The Pittsburgh press is pretty sure the chances are he was putting the move out to see what the sentiment of the players in the Pacific Coast league was. Frankie Frisch of the Glants has been signed to make the Crossett Park team of the Miami Winter league. A number of other stars are considering offers to run teams and play in the little league.

Joe Oeschger, who was with the Brooklyn Dodgers the past season, but shortly before the unconditional release was made, has been signed to play for the San Antonio club of the Texas league. A string is attached to him, Clough was under option to the Toledo franchise. The fireball king will manage the club if the purchase goes through.

Pitcher O'Neill, right-hander of the Salt Lake club of the Pacific Coast league, dropped in on Doc Knight at Rochester, N.Y., to have his wing worked on by Dr. E. J. Graves, who was in the city to have his arm up for the winter with anything wrong with it.

Reports have it that Walter Johnson is to purchase the Toledo American Association club. Johnson, who was in Florida, left for the Ohio city last week to take over the club. The Toledo franchise. The fireball king will manage the club if the purchase goes through.

A report was out last week that Fred Clarke of the Pittsburgh club had made an effort to buy an interest in the Brooklyn Borers. From Winfield, Kan., Clarke denied it, but Drury stated that the Pirate adviser would like to buy into some major league club.

Because of a stiffness in the middle finger of his right hand, which was an X-ray was taken last week in Washington, but failed to show any bone break. The young manager's finger was hurt several weeks before the season ended, and it was not right during the world's series game.

Joe Davis, White Sox shortstop, who broke a kneecap in the city series with the Cubs, underwent a second operation last week. The kneecap, which was shattered in several places, has been put together with gold wires. According to reports, the knee will show no after-effects.

Bill Whaley, third baseman for Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast league, was in a contract last week but not of a baseball nature. He joined the ranks of the benedictines, putting the ring on the finger of Miss Jessie Graves, formerly various booths were well patronized.

Windsor, Nov. 13.—Walskerville and Monarchs, intermediate O. H. A. entrants in the local group that will include Maroons, worked out for the first time at the arena last night, and both looked good. Both drills were snappy affairs, although the managements held the men in check, preferring them to take a caution gradually.

Walskerville, the newcomers in the group, took the ice first, appearing at 8 o'clock, snapping into the session in earnest. The squad showed real promise, and bids fair to give the Maroons a hard time. The Maroons, who were the Big Six senior group, a handy battle when the two battles met in an exhibition affair at the arena a week from tonight.

Squad Looks Good.
At this stage in the game it would be unfair to pick out one or two of the squad as being the pick. But to the Maroons, who were the Big Six senior group, a handy battle when the two battles met in an exhibition affair at the arena a week from tonight.

Monarchs, who drilled at 7 o'clock, trotted out a plentitude of players, and the management should have no difficulty getting a fine aggregation from the collection that came out last night.

Six-Day Biker To Get $10,000

Alf Goulet, Winner of Twelve
New York Races, Gets Guarantee.

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, Nov. 13.—Alfred Goulet, the Tasmanian six-day bicycle racer, signed a contract yesterday to compete in the six-day race which gets under way at the new Madison Square Garden, Nov. 14.

Goulet will get $10,000 for riding the race and an extra bonus if he wins. In his career, Goulet has won his own partner for the grind. Goulet has won twelve races in six days, and has captured first honors in New York eight times, once in Chicago, once in Paris and twice in Australia.

Charles Speiran, secretary since the club's inception, was last night elected president of the Brooklyn Bowling Club. The south-enders' annual confab proved to be an enjoyable affair, and the club spirit which animates the organization incorporated in 1916 was evidenced on every hand.

The report of the treasurer, Howard Harry, showed that the club had one of its most successful seasons financially and from the point of view of membership.

Haskett, president, and speakers were Major Gordon Ingram, an honorary president, and the club's training camp next spring. Among the speakers were Major Gordon Ingram, an honorary president, and the club's training camp next spring.

Montreal, Nov. 13.—Hector Lepine, well-known Montreal amateur hockey player, was tonight signed by Leo Danahy, a former Canadian hockey team, to a three-year contract. His acquisition by Danahy should fill a gap in the roster of the Chicago team.

He has been with the Chicago team two seasons. He broke his collar bone last year in the exhibition period prior to the opening of the regular season.

Robby Banking
On His Hurlers

Special to The Advertiser.

New York, Nov. 13.—Manager Wilbert Robinson, whose old-time strong point as a catcher was to build up pitchers until they were able to pitch to the weakness of the batters, is up to the same trick again.

"I'll put four pitchers in the field in 1926 who between them will be capable of winning anywhere from 60 to 75 games," Robinson told the writer today. "There is no chance for Brooklyn to get star batters away from other clubs by paying star prices. Two clubs in the National league are trying to do that already. But there is a chance for any team to get high-grade pitchers with a manager who thinks I have something here. That's why I traded with Boston. I gave them a good catcher in Taylor, an outfielder in Brown, and the player getting the highest percentage except as a thrower, and an old-timer in Johnston, who can fill any place for them."

Robby figures that Maranville and Moriotti, both taken on waivers, will help him do this.

St. Thomas Stray, who was given a friendly visit to the Arcade Recreation club, won the match by 4-2 pins. Wilson was high with 1,223 and Neving was high for the visitors with 1,115.

FORMER OXFORD FARMER SUCCUMBS AT WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Nov. 13.—Herman Thorton, a well-known retired farmer of West Oxford, died very suddenly this morning at his home here. Deceased had been suffering a slight indisposition, but his illness was not considered to be serious. He was a native of West Oxford, where he farmed for some years before coming to Woodstock. He is survived by his wife and four daughters.

WILLIAM J. BELL OF GUELPH DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Canadian Press Despatch.
Guelph, Nov. 13.—William J. Bell, one of the late founder of the Bell Organ and Piano Company of this city, and for many years past identified with the Sun Life Assurance company, died at his home in Guelph this morning after a short illness, at the age of 62 years. The late Mr. Bell was one of the best known of Guelph's citizens, and for a number of years travelled Europe in the interests of his father's business. The funeral will take place Monday.

FARMERS OF CARADOC BEHIND WITH FALL WORK

Special to The Advertiser.
Mount Brydges, Nov. 13.—Caradoc farmers are two weeks behind with their fall work. Recent heavy frosts will greatly reduce the apple crop, as the Spies and Baldwins, still on the trees, are destroyed. The Apple Growers' association is still loading nearly a carload a day, but report that the work is nearly ended.

The potatoes are almost all dug now. Only the near the top of the ground suffered from frost. About 35 carloads have left this center already, as compared with five for the same date last year.

ELECT LONDONERS

Sarnia, Nov. 13.—With a member of the squad in great shape with the exception of John Manore, whose ankle was strained again yesterday, "Dolly" Gray's Sarnia collegiate gridgers are all set for their important test here Saturday afternoon with the Guelph collegiate in the first game of the senior Wosca final.

Something new in the way of work was started this week. Thursday and today the whole squad turned out at the school at 7:30 a.m. and with the sleep still clinging to their eyes they stampeded through more than an hour's drill on the soggy campus.

Afternoon drills are being held at Rayview park, where the underfooting is better, even if it is as wet. Saturday's game will commence at 2:30 o'clock to enable the squad to get back to Guelph in good time.

J. KEARNS RUSHES TO MICKEY'S SIDE

Fears Friedman Might Mess
Up His $50,000 Investment.

By FAIR PLAY.
Special to The Advertiser.
New York, Nov. 13.—Just as soon as Jack Kearns heard that Mickey Walker would have to meet Spring Friedman in their twelve-round battle in Newark on Nov. 5 at the welterweight poundage, he dropped everything and rushed to the city to prevent Friedman from slipping the welter title, which he could do by knocking Mickey or by Walker committing a foul.

If the second meeting between Mickey and the sailor proves to be as good as the first one, the fans will have their money's worth. Walker, in the first round in East Chicago, got away to a flying start by dumping one of his left hooks to the sailor's jaw and spilling him for a count. He handed Friedman an unmerciful beating for the first six rounds.

But the sailor showed his class by coming back for more and by handing Walker something to think about in the final rounds. Some observers say that the champion was lucky the battle did not end in a draw.

While Mickey's willingness to take Friedman on again shows that he does not fear him, the fact remains that the sailor seems to have done a comeback to his former greatness. He has been showing a world of stuff around Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and is in big demand all over.

Friedman is wise enough to know that the body is a great place to hit. He slows a rival down with terrific punches, but he is not a switch-hitter. He has got away with this system against Walker.

CHRYSLER FOUR

Acclaimed everywhere as typical of Chrysler Quality

Canada has received the Chrysler Four with the declaration—heard from one end of the country to the other—that only such a master manufacturer as Walter P. Chrysler could produce such a car.

It was a foregone conclusion that so extraordinary a development of the four-cylinder principle and so outstanding a value, would be greeted with intense interest.

Conservative opinion hails the Chrysler Four as the most modern and the soundest contribution to finer four-cylinder engineering.

Unquestionably, there has never been a four at anywhere near the price that delivers the Chrysler combination of speed, smoothness, acceleration, pick-up, roadability, riding comfort and ease of handling, fuel mileage and charm of appearance. In every respect, it is a fitting companion to the famous Chrysler Six.

See it—ride in it—drive it!
We are eager to give you the opportunity to learn at first hand the many advantages of owning a new Chrysler Four.
