NEW YORK STOCK LETTER.

William Abbott, received the following review of the market from W. F. Dever & Co., today: New York, June 30.—The stock market developed considerable optimism during early part of session. At the end of the first hour the market showed signs of further hardening and there was a small gain in animation. The other day George Gould sailed for Europe and pronounced optimistic views on the general situation as he was leaving. Harri-man also expressed himself in bullish terms saying that as stocks did not seem to go down they might go up. That seems on first hearing to be no very profound thinking, but the meaning of it is very significant to the trader. The market has reached a point below which it seems impossible to depress it.

DOWNFALL OF A TELLER

Henry Hobbs of Ingersoll Now in Jail at Woodstock.

Lived Beyond His Means, He Is Now Accused of Stealing Nearly $900 From the Merchants' Bank—Arrest a Great Surprise, But Hobbs Spoke Freely of the Causes Which Led to His Downfall.

Woodstock, June 30.—Acting under a warrant sworn out by an official of the Merchants' Bank of Canada, Chief Constable Zeats arrested Henry H. Hobbs, teller in the bank at Ingersoll, and brought him to the county jail here yesterday morning. Hobbs is charged with stealing the sum of $729.94, which he abstracted from the funds of the bank in small sums. He was found at his home on Thames street and took his arrest very coolly, at once putting on his coat and bidding his mother goodbye. He was remanded until July 4, on account of the absence of the police magistrate at Drumbo division court, but he will probably be brought up for preliminary examination within a day or two. The arrest was a great surprise, as Hobbs was generally looked upon as a man of quiet habits, with no extravagant tastes. He was a prominent member of one of the Ingersoll churches and had a very large circle of friends owing to his genial manner. He was also prominent in athletic sports, being well known here as a baseball and hockey player.

Hobbs has been in the employ of the bank in Ingersoll for many years. He is about 24 years of age and of prepossessing appearance. He was born in Walla Walla, Wash., whence he came to this country. His arrest has been a great shock to his mother, who was entirely unaware that her son was living beyond his means.

Since his arrival at the jail he has spoken freely of the causes which led to his downfall. He was not addicted to drink and did not gamble, but admits that he used the bank's funds to enable him to dress in the best style and indulge in luxuries which necessitated a frequent recourse to the bank to enable him to keep up his end. He expects that his friends and relatives will come to his aid and make up the deficiency with the bank and promises that if he gets out of the present trouble he will benefit by his experience.

As the matter is now in the hands of the Crown prosecutor, it rests with him to decide whether the criminal proceedings will be pushed. Tried to End Her Life.

Galt, June 30.—Rather than bear the disgrace of appearing in the police court on a charge of assaulting Robert Lovegrove, her adopted daughter's husband, Mrs. Janet Finlay, an elderly grey-haired woman, who lives on the Hospital road, attempted to commit suicide at 9.30 yesterday morning by throwing herself in the pond above the Electric Light Works' race. Her attempt failed, however, and she was arrested by Chief Gorman, and was later charged with attempting to commit suicide, and was remanded to Berlin for a week, where she will receive medical attendance.

Accused of Forgery. Woodstock, June 30.—Yesterday a man giving his name as Fred Bennett Boynton, B.A., who recently came from Toronto to work in the Hamilton Oak Tanning Company's works here, was arrested on a charge of forgery. The alleged forgery consisted of a check, purportedly signed by George Marshall, secretary of the Tanning Co., which Boynton had cashed by the proprietor of the Central Hotel. Altogether he stands accused of ten charges of forgery. Canadian Doctor Shot.

Buffalo, June 30.—Dr. L. William Douglass of Fort Erie, Ont., was shot just above the nose and in the right arm early yesterday by a woman who rang his door bell. Mrs. Fannie Wellbeloved is under arrest on an open charge. A new revolver was found at her residence concealed in a mattress.

2,000 Victims in Battle.

Buenos Ayres, June 30.—A correspondent at Bage, a Brazilian town, near the Uruguayan frontier, reports that a courier sent by Saravia has arrived there with a report of the battle at Tapambala, Uruguay. The fighting began on Wednesday of last week and continued the following day.

The Government forces had six hundred killed and eight hundred wounded, while the revolutionists suffered one hundred killed and five hundred wounded. The revolutionists captured a big quantity of war supplies.

Another despatch from Bage says the rear of the revolutionary forces under Mariano Saravia, brother of the leader of the revolution, is pursuing the Government troops under General Bunavente. The revolutionists occupy excellent positions.

Considers It Strange.

London, June 30.—(C. A. P.)—Chionza Money says it is strange that Canada, the only country that ever "dumped" her own iron into Britain, is the first to take action against the "dumping" of others. He feels sorry for the Canadian customs official who has to decide whether pig iron sold by Germany to Canada at the ruling German price is to be classed as "dumped," if its value or the German market rose while the metal was on the high seas.

Better to Feel Safe.

London, June 30.—(C. A. P.)—The Governor of New Zealand, in opening Parliament, said it was a matter for consideration whether the original scheme in regard to naval defence should not now be adopted for New Zealand, and the Australian squadron brought into the state the Admiralty suggested. It meant doubling the present subsidy, but it was better to feel safe.

Forced to Report.

Kingston, June 30.—Two members of the Army Service Corps employed in the locomotive works, who had not reported at camp, were arrested and taken over yesterday.
