Opinion that Troubles are Increasing and the Army Bill Will

to Gain Over the Centre Party.

BERLIN, Dec. 14.—The Reichstag yester. day adopted a motion declaring that Rector Ahlwardt is entitled to immunity from imprisonment.

The debate on the first reading of the army bill continued in the Reichstag to day. Freiherr von Teuffel, a prominent leader of the Conservatine party, made a speech bishop Ireland having resigned the position of secretary, Bishop Chapell was elected to he resented the aspersions cast upon the Conservative party by Chancellor von Caprivi, who, a few days ago, declared in the Reichstag that the Conservatives were the supporters of Rector Ahlwardt. On behalf of the Conservative party Man. teuffel disclaimed any intention of carrying on a demagogic propaganda. They never made their attitude toward the army bill dependent upon concessions in other recent meeting of Conservatives. He said he drew from this report the conclusion that they had sympathy for the man who had been condemned by the judges of the land as an asperser of the army. statement was greeted with cries of oh," by the Conservatives. Continuing, the Chancellor said he was satisfied now to find that the party declined to identify itself with Ahlwardt. Dr. Lieber, of the Centre party, declared that the Centrists would only support the two-years' service clause of the bill under the existing organization, and would oppose the increase in the number of soldiers provided for in the bill. They would, he added, oppose other points in the measure. In the course of his the measure. In the course of his remarks Lieber made extended reference to the relations existing between Germany and the Vatican. He laid particular emphasis upon the statement that the Central party would not dream of demanding the restoration of temporal power to the pope as the price of the Vatican's sanction of the triple alliance.

on motion of Dr Osen Liberal, the bill was referred to a committee of twenty-eight.
