GERMAN GUNS ARE BROUGHT TO CANADA AS WAR SOUVENIRS

Montreal, May 15.—The steamer Vindelia brings an interesting and historic cargo into port, a score of captured guns which were wrested from the Germans by Canadian soldiers. Among the heavy artillery is a big gun which is labelled: "2nd Canadian Division, 24th Battalion, No. 930," and this is consigned to the Victoria Rifles, Montreal. No. 935 is the property of the 25th Battalion of Nova Scotia. There were others, but in many cases they were illegibly marked.

It seems peculiarly fitting that the Vindelia should bring over this cargo, for its captain—Captain Saunders—had the duty of taking over the Vindelia of the Cunard line, in the great Canadian armada that reached Plymouth in October, 1914, with the first division aboard.

BORDEN AND SIFTON LEFT PARIS TODAY ON THE WAY HOME.

Paris, May 14.—In view of the fact that the principles have been settled up in which peace is to be established, Sir Robert Borden and the Hon. Arthur Sifton left Paris this morning for London and will proceed to Canada by the first available boat.

CANADA'S BOYS WILL SOON BE HOME

By Middle of July, Says General Currie.

London, May 14.—General Sir Arthur Currie, speaking to the Canadian Associated Press, expressed his confidence that not many Canadian soldiers would remain on this side after the middle of July.

"We hope to break all records this month by at least ten thousand," he said. "If we get 55,000 away in May and 50,000 in June there will not be many more left here. Of course we have always the bugbear of strikes to contend with. 'I should like to say how generally excellent discipline among Canadians has remained. Since the armistice our men have been a long way from home and a long time from their families. They came simply to do a job. They have done it. They have also accepted themselves the provisions made for deliberation in a very good spirit. I think many people in Canada will take a different view of what has been done in the full facts are appreciated."

The captain and the mate on board the Pretty Polly were at loggerheads. They scowled whenever they met, and seized opportunities of scoring off each other with fearful glee. Each took a turn at making the day's entries in the log-book, and the mate, when making his entries was very surprised to find in the captain's handwriting, the words:

"June 2nd, 1917—Mate drunk. He stared at it wrathfully a moment then a slow grin broke over his face. He took his pen and wrote: "June 3rd, 1917—Captain sober." "POINTED PARAGRAPHS."
