WELL & KINNEAR JEWELL & KINNEAR

ELEVENTH YEAR.

WILL RUN A TEAM

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 9, 1890

Toronto

ONE CENT.

s.s. Vancouver

Jos Tait and Ald. McDougall to Carry the Reform Banner.

A WALK-OVER FOR THE BAKER.
 A convention of 630 He Reserves are functional to be and the second to be platform. He was and the second the second to be platform. He was and the second the second to be platform. He was and the second the into believing that he did not want it—would not take it under any consideration— wouldn't have it—he'd be d—d if he would— but he took it just the same. Yes, Gentle Josenh declared to the 630 delegates that he would not accept the prof-fered communication. The first ballot was de-fered communication. The first ballot was de-fered communication.

fered crown, but he just grabbed that d it would also show that the party in To-to were not afraid to meet their opponent in a fair and square fight. Mr. Jury believed that two candidates would be stronger than a single one, as it would prevent a split in the vote, and if one of the candidates could defeat either of the Clarkes then the chances were good for the raining of both

The

The Names Before the Convention. These candidates were then nominated:

World

CA P

<page-header><page-header><text><text><form><form><form><form><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> wait. He polled 133 votes on the first ballot Not bad at all, Hartley. Thomas Moor, the well-known labor politician, was complimented by workingmen legates to the number of a score voting for him.

Only six names came finally before the con vention and it was decided to put two men in Wention and it was decided to put two men in the field.

Gathering of the Clans.
It was 8 o'clock when The World reached the hall and at that time the room was about quarter full of delegates. Each ward kept to itself to a great extent and the prospective candidates spent most of their time shaking hands with the faithful as they piled into hands with the faithful as they piled into the hall. Big John Stormont, who used to hands with the faithful as they piled into the hall. Big John Stormont, who used to be a policeman, but since he became a West End saldon-keeper can drive his horse and buggy and wear good clothes, tyled the door, assisted by a small man with a red moustache. With the exception of the whisky men, of whom there were well nigh floo urgesont the saldon the ticket present, all comers were admitted by ticket. Ex-Ald. Josh Ingham had forgotten his pasteboard and was kept dancing attendance at the head of the stairs while he could be identified by one of the initiated. A moment later "Jim" Lennox swaggered through without a ticket and without opposition, remark-ing, "Robert Jaffray is responsible for me." Dan Kelly met with a rebuff from the big doorkeeper and only got admittance after doorkeeper and only got admittance after some hard pleading. Among the 630 who passed in review be-fore the tylers were: Robert Jaffray, R. J. Fleming, William Burns, Jim Frawley, T. C. Irving, F. G. Inwood, Joseph Tait, K. S. Baird, Jim Lennox, License Inspectors Hastings and Wilson, Joshua Ingham, ex-Ald. M. J. Woods, John Mallon, Ald. Lindsey, Daniel Kelly, George Evans, J. J. Quinn, Pat O'Connor, D. J. Kannedy, W. J. Ken-nedy, Johnnie Beers, Ald. William Carlyle, E. T. Malone, Brewer Kormann, Ald. George Verral, Tailor Jury, Jimmie McGinn, Lem Felcher, Dr. Cassidy, Peter Small, St. Andrew's Ward Collector Ned Rush, the Scully boys (John, Bill and Tom), Ald. Elliott. Andrew's Ward Collector Ned Rush, the Scully boys (John, Bill and Tom), Ald. Elliott, Arthur Mowat, John Leys, Thomas Moor, ex-Ald. Reaf, J. J. Withrow, J. D. Oliver, S.-F. McKinnon, Ald. Hill, ex-Ald. Tom Hunter, George McMurrich, Hugh Miller, J.P., A. M. Smith, Henry W. Darling, John Heighton, W. L. Smith, Thomas Lyon and J. L. Troy.

President Jaffray Takes the Chair. It was not until 81% that the convention was called to order. Robert Jaffray, president of the Toronto Reform Asbeing with him on the platform E. 7 sociation. occupied the chair, there E. T. Malone, Artkur Mowat, J. J. Withrow, Alfred Jury, John Leys, R. S. Baird, S. F. McKinnon, ex-Ald. Roaf, J. D. Oliver, ex-Ald. Hunter, H. W. Darling, F. G. Inwood, George McMurrich, Hugh Miller, Joseph George McMurrich, Hugh Miller, Joseph Tait, A. M. Smith. The convention at once went into the resolution business after President Jaffray Mr. Withrow moved this, which was of

That the Reformers of Toronto. in convention "Inat the Reformers of Toronto. In convention assembled, express their confidence in the Govern-ment of Hon. Oliver Mowat and pledge them-selves to use their best efforts to keep him in power so that the people may-(I can scarcely nate the next word out, but) think it is forecer have the next word out, but) think it is forecer man. He had had his tu should be given a show. bir. Darling, who seconded the resolution explained that the word the mover called "forever" was "further," which lead the audience to the conclusion that he it was attende to the conclusion that he it was who prepared the resolution. He also said that Mr. Mowat's government was the best in the world, and its leader had been un-swerving in his loyalty and faithfulness to the observed. the charge committed to his care. The reso lution was carried.

tion was carried. This resolution was moved by Robert Mc-is convention, representing the Ref Toronto, are of opinion that under the ip of Hon. Oliver Mowat all classes an That this formers of Torohto, are of optimer and the second present preship of Hon. Oliver Mowat all classes and denoit pations of this prosperous province enjoy and exist.

Mr. McLean was proceeding to quote ex tracts from a paper whose chief proprietor, he said, at one time thought he could pur-chase the Legislature and turn Mowat out, when he was greeted with cries of "Time," and his voice was drowned in a perfect babble. He subsided and the resolution was ars of And Mr. Tait stepped from the platform.

Ah, There! We Want Two Candidates Vice-President E. T. Malone moved and F. Jury seconded this motion:

Wood advocated his election for the reason that there were "thousands of men idle and many thousand empty houses in the city." Beoming a Wronged Man. Mr. McLean thought the delegates should choose Mr. Withrow because he had been dealt with unjustly and cheated out of the St. Thomas' Ward Conservatives Choose Their Delegates to the Con-

A meeting of the Conservative Association of St. Thomas Ward was held last night, Fresident John Withow to the state of th President John Wilson in the chair. Fortyfour delegates to the convention were chosen. A resolution endorsing Mr. Mere-dith's platform was moved by Mr. Riddell and seconded by Mr. Whitesides. mayoralty, and an opportunity was now given to redeem themselves. Mr. Tait pointed out that Ald. Mc-Three Equal Rights Meetings.

Three largely attended Equal Rights meetings were held last night: St. David's Ward in Mission Hall, Sackville-street; St. Mark's in Murray's Hall, Northcote-avenu and St. Andrew's in Qccident Hall, King and Bathurst-streets. At each meeting 25 dele-gates were elected to the convention Monday night. All three promised $20 to the central and city organisations and guaranteed to pay their share of money in case a fight is entered upon and city organisations and their share of money i entered upon.

They Want to Be Politicians, Too. The Woman's Enfranchisement Association of St. Alban's Ward met yesterday afternoon at McMath's Hall, Queen-street west. Letters were read from ladies interested i of unimpeachable character and a conspi ous gentleman generally. These scrutineers were then appointed: These scrutineers were then appointed: St. James' Ward-Spencer Lane, James Sinclair. St. Thomas'-George Ross, W. Rundle. St. David's-J. Powell, W. H. Cahill. St. Lawrence-R. H. Ramsay, F. E. Balley. St. Paul's-J. F. Mowat, J. H. Mackenzie. St. Matthew's-J. K. Leslie, Charles McKenzie. St. Andrew's-Samuel Reeves, John Marvin. St. George's-J. B. Hay, Charles McKenzie. St. Andrew's-Bannel Reeves, John Marvin. St. George's-J. B. Hay, Charles Rogers. St. Alban's-D. McKinlay, J. M. Wingfield. St. Patter's-William Adamson, John Hawkins. the movement as to the advisability of getting admitted into the political club in company with their husbands, in order to company with their husbands, in order to gain knowledge of a political character. A letter was also read from the Woodstock Association which stated that that associ-ation was in a flourishing condition, being composed of ministers and ladies and gentle-men connected with the educational inter-ests of that city. Delegates we're elected to represent the ward association at the convention to be held in June Hawkins. St. Mark's—David Powers, A. G. Clements, The Son of His Father Drops Out.

Arthur Mowat said he was gratified to hav The Reformers Will Meet in the Pavilion his name brought forward. A few weeks The Reformers have decided to hold a mass meeting in the Pavilion some evening next week. The exact date has not yet been fixed. ago his father's son had been asked to carry the Reform standard to victory in the coming contest. There was then no reason, private or public, why he should not become a can-Addresses will be delivered by Hon. Oliver Mowat, Mr. Hardy and probably G. W. Ross. didate. However, some of the most faithful

CHOOSING CANDIDATES. and most active members of the party had since assured him it would not be in the Arthur Craig Nominated by Centre Sim-since assured him it would not be in the party interest for him to do so, and to day he had had a consultation with the Attorney-General, and the latter had asked him in the interests of the party not to allow himself to be nominated. The Reformers of Toronto would appreciate this coming from the Premier, and how much more so should his son respect his wish! He therefore re-tired. cue Conservatives. BARRIE, May 8.-The Centre Simcoe Conservative Association held a convention here to-day which was attended by delegates from all parts of the riding. Mr. William Switzer all parts of the riding. Mr. William Switzer of Sunnidale was re-elected president and Mr. Thomas Sproule of Barrie secretary. Mr. Arthur Craig, reeve of Medonte, was selected as candidate for the Assembly. Dr. Wylie, the late M.L.A. for the west riding, addressed the meeting. Mr. A. Mis-campbell, who is opposing Hon. Charles Drury in the east riding, made a telling speech. Ald. Hallam, who was not present, sent a letter declining the nomination. Mr. Withrow, who was loudly applauded, announced that his business interests were such that he could not neglect them, and be speech.

such that he could not neglect them, and be-sides his experience of election contests had not been most pleasant. Some one called out: "You must stand," whereupon he remarked that he chose to be his own judge. Messrs. Hunter and P. Jamieson announced that they were not candidates. Organiser Preston said his duties in other ridings would engage his undivided attention; Ald, Bou-stead and Mr. Fleming didn't want the Ossition. George Graham (Ref.) in Dundas. IROQUOIS, May 8.—The Reform convention was held at Winchester Springs to-day. A was held at Winchester Springs to-day. A number of candidates were nominated. All refused to be sacrificed except George Graham of The Morrisburg Herald and Adam Johnston. Graham beat Johnston out. The farmers' candidate, C. D. Cassel-man, had to take a back seat. The success of Whitney, the Conservative nominee, is now more than assured. Mr. Leys explained that it was generally inderstood he would retire this term. He did not think that an office in the gift of the people should be monopolised by one man. He had had his turn; some person else

W. M. Mack (Ref.) in Cornwall. The North End Baker Receives an Ovation

CORNWALL, May 8 .- The Reform convention was held to-day at Newington. Every Ten of those nominated had now retired section of the county was represented. Re-When Mr. Tait stepped upon the platform to section of the county was represented. Ke-solutions were passed endorsing the policy of Mr. Mowat and the course pursued by the late member for the county, Mr. W. M. Mac., who was unanimously chosen to be the standard bearer of the party at the coming election. Mr. Mack accepted the nomination. address the delegates he was greeted with shouts of applause, which continued for some address the onlegates he was greeted with s shouts of applause, which continued for some time. It was patent at the outset that a clear three-fourths of the convention had come prepared to support his candidature. His announcement that under no circumstances could he be their candidate came like a thunderbolt out of the blue, and he did not put the audience in any better humor by announcing that he had kept his intentions secret in order that persuasion could not be brought to bear upon him to reconsider his decision, but served to add to the chagrin of the delegates. Mr. Tait said:

 It is needless to tell you that I have long cherished the hope and aspiration of being nominated as a candidate in the Reform interest. I have long the sa candidate in the Reform interest. It will therefore be with a feeling of sadness that you will realise to night that I cannot possibly be a candidate. Let there be no misunderstanding about the mater. It is no eccessary to state my reasons. Suffice it to say I have every faith in the Government of Mr. Movat and the justice of their came. Some day in the near future if the nomination is tendered me. I may accept. But consight I as you not to vote for me.
 And Mr. Tait stapped from the platform. Charles Mackenzie (Ref.) in West Lambton SARNIA, May 8 .- Charles Mackenzie was -day chosen by the Reformers of West Lambton as their candidate in the coming provincial contest. The candidate made a speech accepting the nomination.

Hugh Smith (Con.) in Frontenac. KINGSTON, May 8 .- The Conservatives o the County of Frontenac to-day nominated Hugh Smith as their Assembly candidate.

F. A. Halliday (Ref.) in Addington. KINGSTON, May 8.—The Reformers of Add ington have chosen Francis A. Halliday as their Assembly candidate.

Mr. Wellington Won't Accept.

WELLANDPORT, May 8.-The convention of the Conservatives of Monk re-assembled

Caron said he regretted that the Govern-ment had not been able to put in the supple-mentary estimates a sum sufficient to drill the whole militia force this year, but he had hopes that such provision might be made in the near future. In answer to Mr. Sutherland he said that the matter of supplying heimets had been for it at present. It would cost $10,009 a year for three years. The Minister of Militia has decided to ac-cede to the request made of him yesterday that the Government should issue free the amaunition required for the proposed matches of the Canadian Military Eiffe cede to the request made of him yesterday that the Government should issue free the ammunition required for the proposed matches of the Canadian Military Rife

 Take statuse of alling has defined by by the status of or all structure status of the status of or all structure hery-weight champion of Boston, in le rounds. The opinion was generally surrendered the contest. The $1200 trophy was awarded to Godfrey. Godfrey weighed li T2 pounds and the western man voluntarily was awarded to Godfrey. Godfrey weighed li T2 pounds and the western rife. The referse was Billy Mahoney of Boston. God-frey's seconds were Baldy Carroll and George H. Smith, Guion broke down and confessed his crime. To Kelly. Cardiff wascemarkably clever in dodding was discolored and his face was cut by the powerful left hand blows delivered body puishment, the objective point to his man. The Boston mais left eyre was discolored and his face was cut by the powerful left hand blows delivered the bost adversary. Neither received any to his adversary. Neither received any the bost adversary. New seized with nauseare the said hethough the could discussion with a member of the Chamber of Deputies condemned Emperor discussion with a member of the Chamber of Deputies condemned Emperor William's social policy as inspired by mere political designs. He blamed the Pope for making advances to socialism. He admitted the grievances of the working classes but maintained-that state interfer ence would fail to cure them. Will Meet the Cut. CHICAGO, May 8.—At a meeting of repre-sentatives of the east bound roads to-day the rate on oats without giving proper notice. All the lines with the possible exception of the Baltimore & Ohio will meet the 22 cent.

Late Shore was censuled for result for result of the possible exception of the Baltimore & Ohio will meet the 22 cent rate, taking effect Monday.
Discharged on Account of His Youth. HALIFAX, May 8.—Ed. Weeks, the boy arrested for placing obstructions on the rails in mount to those stolen, and followed that in mount to those stolen, and followed that in mount to those stolen, and followed that in the Springhill & Parrsboro Railway, has been discharged on account of his youth.
Discharged on account of his Youth. HalifAX, May 8.—Ed. Weeks, the boy arrested for placing obstructions on the rails in mount to those stolen, and followed that youth.
Discharged on account of his Youth. HalifAX, May 8.—Ed. Weeks, the boy arrested for placing obstructions on the rails in New York, by depositing new bonds equal in amount to those stolen, and followed that youth.
To night between 7 and 10 o'clock we give any suit in the store for $6,90. The Model Clothing Store, 219 and 231 Yonge-street.
Change in Time via Erie Railway and the S Only Line Running Through Pulliman account for his post of the Springhill & Parrsboro Railway, in by causing a suit to be brought against for an account of his post. The fait Acainst the Trustees.

of New York, was admitted to the firm in 1833. With the introduction of steam on the ocean, the firm established the line of steamers which has since been commonly known as the Guion Line. In November, 1876, Mirs. Williams died, and the two Guion brothers continued the business. The firm being engaged in foreign trade was continued under the old name. The next change in the firm was made in January. 1884, at the time of the fallure of William H. Guion. His son, William H. Guion, jr., took his place in the new firm, which subsequently was changed to that of A. M. Underhill & Co., under which name it is known ap present. The News in Town. When the morning papers were read by at Mount Forest, were last night liberated on the strength of a telegram from the authori-ties of that town, stating that if the supposed burglars had none of the stolen property in their possession they should be freed from custody. has been placed under the control of the Board of Works the department is asking for $98,000 to cover the cost for 1890.____

It is interesting to note how quickly a novelty in dress gains in favor among fash-ionable people. Take for instance the latest Grand Trunk Earnings. Return of traffic for week ending May American necktie, "The Oconto." It has become the rage and has taken such a hold upon the community that guinn finds it difficult to supply the demand. Another 1890. Passenger train earnings.....$121,078 Freight "200,482 Total.....

Increase 1890.....$ 28,752 The Date of the Great Vote The special committee of the Torontz Street Railway franchise met yesterday

Ald. Vokes in the chair. It was mended that the bylaw to be submi people authorizing the council to the property of the company be on June 17.

the Grand Trunk train leaving Toronto at 4.55 p.m. for New York. The Pullmans burning piles in a hopeless manner. The great wooden buildings lit up the hills for miles around. The coroner will hold an im SICKENING SCENES

The Keepers' Stories-Friends Searching for Lost Inmates.

NORWICH, N.Y., May 8 .- The exci here over the destruction of the poor and county insane asylum is intens

Send 25 cents and get The World from now till after the Provincial Elections.

The Cuban is Ahead.

NEW YORE, May 8 .- The match of poor between Alfedo d'Oro, the Cuban, and Albert Detween Alledo d'Oro, the Cuban, and Albert Powes of whis city was opened here this even-ing. The game will continue three nights and will consist of 600 points. This evening d'Oro came out with 202 to 149. 1899. $132,807 225,001

An Outbreak in Syria.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 8 .- There has been severe fighting between the Maronites and Druses in the Mount Lebanon district of Syria. The Porte has sent troops to sup-press the outbreak.

The World gives the best and most com-plete campaign news. Get it till after the elections for 25 cents.

The Tariff Debate in Congress. WASHINGTON, May 8.—The tariff deb was continued in the House to-day.

To-night between 7 and 10 o'clock w give any suit in the store for $6.90. The Model Clothing Store, 219 and 221 Yonge Chicago Carpenters Besume Work. CHICAGO, May 8.—About 4000 striking car-penters resumed work here to-day.

Mr. Brant Would Like to Know "G. The Newfoundlanders With Us. Will "G.," whose communication with reference to the Siberian exile system ap peared in The World of May 6, communicat with Fails Brant 2009 Mutual-streat OTTAWA, May 8.—The Newfoundil gates laft for Toronto to-night.

The World gives the best and most com-plete campaign news. Get it till after the elections for 25 conts.

Steamship Arrivals. Name.

HUGHES-CROOKALL.-At the Pro Cathedral, Victoria, B. C., by the Rev. Father Gribbin, Captain Patrick Donaho Hughes of Seattle Washington, formerly of the Queen's Own, son of Patrick Hughes, Esq., of this city, to Gertrude, daughter of the late. Charles Crookal, Esq., manager Merchants Bank, Berlin, Ont, and niede of the Yarr Dar Monsimum Crookal D.T. Cloudy with Local Bains. her for Ontario: Southwest to Weather for neest to tinds, partly cloudy with local rains, a lit igher temperature. MAXINUM TEMPERATURES TESTERDAT.

to 51, Montreal 54, Quebec 50, Wind

A good investment wacant lot on 1 road, being 80 feet frontage by 150 feet lane. This is a valuable lot, being on from Avenuescad. Apply Frank Carles ner Dundas and Keel of Junction 17 -Suddenly at Brampton on Thurs-nst., in the 35th year of her age, fe of John H. Beynon, Q.C., and the stat James McChurger Roomen.

To-morrow's Saturday Night will contain i first chapters of Mrs. Alexander's new and gr story "Blind Fate." It is by the author "Mona's Choice." "The Wooing O't," etc. Sat day Night is now splendidly illustrated, Ed Beeton, the high grade watch specialist, has emoved to 35 Leader-lane.

.$381,560

