How Mrs. Reed of Peoria, Ill., Escaped The Surgeon's Knife.

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. Forty years ago I suffered. The doctor said I had a tumor and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a well and healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. I am glad to tell anyone what your medicines have done for me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."—Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 105 Mound St., Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Lynch Also Avoided Operation.
Jessup, Pa.—"After the birth of my fourth child, I had severe organic inflammation. I would have such terrible pains that it did not seem as though I could stand it. This kept up for three long months, until two doctors decided that an operation was needed. "Then one of my friends recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after taking it for two months I was a well woman."—Mrs. JOSEPH A. LYNCH, Jessup, Pa.

Women who suffer from female ills should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one of the most successful remedies the world has ever known, before submitting to a surgical operation.

Expert Judges at Fairs

A frequent cause of complaint on the part of exhibitors at fall fairs arises from the lack of uniformity in the placing of awards. One year a judge will set a standard of excellence that differs radically from the ideal looked for by the judges who appear on the same grounds the next year. This is unsatisfactory, not only to the exhibitors immediately concerned, but also to producers in the neighborhood of the fair, for they are given no uniform type to follow in their live stock or crop operations. To overcome this lack of uniformity in judging in Ontario, Mr. J. Lockie Wilson, superintendent of agricultural societies, has arranged a short course early in July where they will receive special instructions from experts, compare ideas and arrive at a uniform standard for the various classes that will appear before them in the show rings and on the show benches of the province. About two hundred of the judges who work in the eastern part of Ontario will go to Ottawa, and two hundred who operate in the western end of the province will go to Guelph, each lot for a week's course. This is a commendable new movement that should result in better judging and ultimately in better fairs.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Forty per cent. of the children attending the Protestant schools in Montreal are Hebrews. In some schools, whole classes have not a single professed Christian in them.

Increasing leisure today has produced an enormous growth of luxurious living. The evil is not in the multiplication of pleasures, but in the ever-increasing expenditures in things which add nothing to the sum of human enjoyment. The sensation of luxury which values all things by their cost is making society more cumbersome, costly and ugly. The whole tendency of it is to vulgarize life.

A municipality—be it city, town, village or township—is not merely an area of populated land. It is an organization of citizens banded together to accomplish certain objects uniting their forces for the common good. A municipality can just worry along in a narrow rut, attempting nothing beyond what the law compels, achieving nothing beyond what the barest necessity dictates. Another municipality attempts things beyond the ordinary, brings extra comforts and enjoyments to its citizens, does things that mark it as progressive and up-to-date, and that make for it a name among its fellows.

During the early part of the present year the scarcity of help in Canada induced the Government to relax its regulations to permit the entry into Canada of railroad construction laborers, general laborers and others coming to assured employment without requiring them to be in possession of $25, as is the general law. This relaxation applied to persons from the British Isles and Northern continental Europe. Owing to the present temporary money stringency, and the possible decline of building operations, instructions have now been issued to the officers of the department of immigration that immigrants arriving on and after July 1st must have in their possession $25 each as required by law. Farm laborers and female domestics, for which there is a great demand in all the provinces, are not required to have on arrival any specific amount of money.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The Brantford Expositor reasons thus: "Once a boy can be made to understand that even from a money making point of view it pays to remain at school as long as possible, the present disinclination to schooling, and the present disposition to leave school prematurely, will have been largely corrected."

To ASTHMA SUFFERERS. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy comes like a helping hand to a sinking swimmer. It gives new life and hope by curing his trouble—something he has come to believe impossible. Its benefit is too evident to be questioned—it is its own best argument—its own best advertisement. If you suffer from asthma get this time-tried remedy and find help like thousands of others.

SUCCESS WITH HOGS.

A Swineherd's Method of Raising Thrifty Chester Whites.
My plan in taking care of my Chester White hogs is to keep my brood sows in just as thrifty a condition as possible at all times, writes F. Little in Orange Judd Farmer. In fact, I strive to do this with all classes of swine. I sort the hogs as to size and age and keep them in small pasture lots. I let them run out all the time as I am a great believer in hogs having plenty of exercise. They must have this to do well. I also plan to feed them a variety of stuff and to feed regularly, believing that their stomachs need attention just as well as those of human beings.

My brooding sows are kept in a yard by themselves. I do not shut them up until farrowing time approaches. Sometimes I keep them in a pen a day or two beforehand, but I very frequently permit them to run out with the other sows. I am convinced that the sow should be shut up by herself and fed alone some time before and some days after farrowing. After the pigs come the sow should not be fed very much for a few days else the pigs will scour and some of them may die. After two or three days the sow should have her feed the same as before farrowing. Provide plenty of room for exercise at all times for the sow as well as the pigs.

When the pigs are a month or so old they will eat a little corn and a little swill. After the pigs are eight weeks old I wean them. The sow will then not be giving much milk, and the pigs will do better if shut off by themselves and properly fed. Give these weaning pigs a warm place to sleep in, plenty of water at all times, good feed, and you will be surprised to see how fast they grow. Started in this way they will weigh fifty pounds at two months old and at three months they will weigh from seventy to ninety pounds. At four months old I have had pigs weigh 125 pounds and at five months 200 pounds. This fall one of my seven month pigs weighed 270 pounds and was good enough to take the blue ribbon in a class of forty-four at the Illinois state fair.

A Missouri farmer gives in a recent issue of Breeder's Gazette an account of his Chester White sow. Her first four litters totaled forty-four pigs, eleven in each litter, and all were raised. Her fifth litter had eight, all of which were raised. Her sixth litter had fourteen; eleven raised. Her seventh litter had sixteen; nine raised. Her eighth litter, last March, had sixteen; all chilled. Her ninth litter had seven; six raised. She has recently farrowed fourteen pigs, eleven of which are living. She never was bred but once for a litter and has farrowed only one dead pig. The Chester White sow shown is an excellent specimen of this fine breed of hogs.

I keep my herd boars by themselves and feed them well. I want to say further concerning feeding my sows that a 250 pound sow will take care of twelve quarts of good swill three times a day and three ears of corn.

I try to provide swine pasture as fully as I can. I have red clover and timothy. Clover, of course, is the very best feed we can get in this country. I use a standard dip and either dip or spray my hogs every sixty days.

Not Yet

A gentleman once saw a boy peeling the bark from one of his choice trees with a hatchet. He tried to catch the boy, but the latter was too quick for him, so the gentleman changed his tactics. "Come here, my son," he said, in a soft flute-like voice, with counterfeited friendliness, "come here to me a minute. I want to tell you something." "Not yet," replied the lad; "little boys like me don't need to know everything."

Why He Was Not Promoted

He watched the clock. He was always grumbling. He was always behindhand. He had no iron in his blood. He was willing but unfitted. He didn't believe in himself. He asked too many questions. He was stung by a bad book. His stock excuse was "I forgot." He wasn't ready for the next step. He did not put his heart in his work. He learned nothing from his blunders. He felt that he was above his position. He chose his friends among his inferiors. He was content to be a second rate man. He ruined his ability by half doing things. He never dared to act on his own judgment. He did not think it worth while to learn how. He tried to make bluff take the place of ability.
