

the hum of happy voices, and the music of a piano played by some skillful hand. A lady it was that touched these keys, one just in the first blush of ripening womanhood. Near her stood one who claimed and richly deserved the title of husband, he had chosen for his wife one of our Green Mountain maidens, and she none other than our little bound girl.

During the evening I missed her from the parlor, and conjecturing whether she might have fled, I went up to the little attic, and there seated on the very old broken chair which formerly had made part of its furniture, I found her in tears; she looked up and smiled at me, and said, "I came here to make a row," said she, "but in my progress I will never forget to succor the orphan and the oppressed."

THE MAYNOOTH GRANT.

The third reading of the Maynooth Bill engaged the attention of the House of Commons on the night of the 19th, 20th and 21st of May. In this debate, says the European Times, the old threadbare arguments were furnished up again, but having lost the charm of novelty, the indignation was necessarily superior. The division on the final passage of the Bill through the commons was nearly similar to that on its second reading. It was disposed of by a clear majority of 133 for it.

For the Bill, 319
Against it, 186

Majority, 133

Immediately after its passage in the Commons the Bill was introduced with the Lord by no less a personage than his Grace the Duke of Wellington, who on this occasion superseded Lord Stanley as representative of the Government.

The second reading of the Bill was pressed rather hastily by the noble Duke, on the night of Monday, 24th inst., and he was met in the lobby by an amendment moved by Lord Rokeby, who, together with the Bishop of London, strenuously opposed the Grant, and the debate was adjourned without coming to a division.

There stands the Maynooth Bill for the present.

DEMONSTRATIONS IN IRELAND.—Mr. O'Connell held a grand levee in Dublin on the 30th of May, in celebration of the incarceration of The Martyrs. The Orange Associations, indignant at this assumption of regal ceremony, had reorganized and were about holding meetings and arranging a procession for the approaching 12th of July.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin has presented an address, praying her Majesty to visit Ireland this summer. A formal answer was returned. It appears to be generally understood that the royal visit will not take place this year.

The repeal meeting at Tara respecting which considerable preparations had been made for some time previous, took place on the 22nd inst. The accounts differ materially as to the numbers attending. Both parties agree in this, that the attendance and the enthusiasm were far in excess of the great meeting on the same spot in 1843.

At the Repeal Association 6100 from Halifax, N. S. was announced among the recruits, and 220 from Sydney.

On the 27th ult., the Whiting Shoal, in the Thames was forced by a galvanic battery and fast fire of it displaced.

The House of Lords has passed the Hereditary Succession Bill. The lady in this case is the daughter of Dr. Lardner.

It is rumored that the parliamentary session will close about the middle of July, and that her Majesty desires that such should be the case.

Colonel Maxwell, 26th Foot aged 59, died on the 21st ult., at Newcastle on Tyne.

Launch of a War Steamer.—On Saturday, 24th ult., a fine class steamer, named the Indefatigable 1100 tons burthen, was launched at the royal dock yard, Pembroke. The dimensions are—Length between perpendiculars, 156 feet, extreme breadth 35 feet and depth in hold 20 feet. The armament is to consist of six large guns, four twenty-four pounders, and two eight-four pounders.

EDUCATION IN IRELAND.—Sir James Graham's "Gospel Scheme of Education," (as styled by Sir Robert Inglis), has been rejected by the Roman Catholic Prelates of Ireland, on the ground that the faith of their Church is not duly protected. The Scheme received considerable support from "Young Ireland," as a party of young enthusiasts is called by their voice "sings small" beside that of O'Connell and the whole body of the Catholic Clergy. The Bill has passed a second reading in the Commons by a majority of 205—an amendment by Lord John Manners meeting with only 46 supporters.

THE WEATHER AND THE CROPS.—The season in England has been marked by extraordinary backwardness—the spring weather having been unusually cold. The accounts of the crops from country districts are dismal. Corn was advanced 2s. or 2s. per cwt. in consequence.

An enterprising individual of Hamburg has arranged for a cheap trip round the world. The route has been so arranged as to secure a continual summer to the voyagers.

Amongst the Railway projects talked of is one to connect Bristol with South Wales by means of a tunnel under the Severn.

The Slave factories on the banks of the river Congo are said to have frightfully increased of late. They are principally Spanish and Portuguese.

The founder of a true and new religion has advertised in the Paris papers, for a supply of priests, monks &c.

A fossil turtle, eighteen feet long, and seven feet high, has been discovered in the Amoy hills.

The Catholic Bishops are up in arms against the measure now before Parliament for establishing colleges in the north, the south, and the west of Ireland. At the meeting in Dublin, some few days ago, they agreed to memorialize Government to modify some of the provisions of the bill, in order that the students should have the benefit of religious instruction, by Catholic Clergymen, within the walls of the colleges—that the Catholic Bishops should have a veto upon the appointment of the professors—and that due measures might be taken against the religious opinions of the young men being tampered with. In the House of Commons, on Friday night, Sir James Graham declared that some of these propositions could not be entertained; but he expressed, at the same time, a sincere desire to make the provisions of the bill as agreeable as he consistently could with the wishes of the Roman Catholics. But it is quite clear that the scheme will be unpopular in Ireland. Mr. O'Connell is violently opposed to it; the hierarchy will not be compelled to denounce it; and its exclusive support will rest upon the shoulders of "Young Ireland"—a somewhat ragged body, as recent events have demonstrated. The second reading of the Bill was carried on Monday by a majority of 205. An amendment proposed by Lord John Manners, body met with 46 supporters.

Trial of the Monster Gun.—A trial of the monster gun, which has been manufactured in this town for the American steam-ship Princeton, of which we have given some details in a former number, was made on Saturday week, on the sands, North Shore, between Crony and Formby. The firing commenced about eleven in the morning, and continued with some slight intermission until three in the afternoon. During that time upwards of three tons of shot were discharged, each shot weighed upwards of two hundred weight. The report was distinctly heard in the neighborhood of the docks, and in the north end of the town, although the scene of the firing was some eight or nine miles distant. The experiments proved highly satisfactory. The appearance of the shot, after each discharge, skimming along the water, had a novel and pleasing effect. The range extended some miles. The day mild and fine, and notwithstanding the fact of the gun having been carried out as early as three in the morning to the scene of the experiments, to avoid untowardly great numbers were attracted to the spot when the firing commenced.

Germany appears to be in a state of high excitement in consequence of the schism which M. Ruge, the new Luther, who demands marriage for the Catholic priesthood, and the celebration of the mass in the native, instead of the Latin language, has been made between the New and the Old Lights. In this controversy some of the ablest pens, and several of the crowned heads are already engaged. The Emperor of Austria has taken the most prompt measures to prevent the introduction of the schism into his dominions, while it is viewed with a feeling of satisfaction by the King of Prussia. M. Ruge and his coadjutors appear to be gaining ground; and if victorious is to be crowned, the emperor of Rome is at present one of the most notorious of individuals.

INDIA AND CHINA.—The Overland Mail arrived in London on the 24th ult. Intelligence has been received from Bombay to the 5th, Calcutta to the 7th, and Madras to the 14th of April. The news in a political point of view is unimportant. The expedition of Sir Charles Napier against the Pindarees had been successful. Their leader Bajar Khan, and a considerable number of his followers, had been captured. The Pindarees are still in an unsettled state. Phaul Sawant and his confederates continue to find sanctuary in the Ghat territories. The Portuguese Governor still refuses to allow our troops to follow the rebels within his frontier, and is unable, even if he were willing, to drive out the fugitives. Cholera is prevalent in Calcutta, but is not of a nature to create more than customary alarm.

There is a floating report that Aden has been surprised and captured, but no reliance can be placed on a report which has become proverbial by its frequency.

Ceylon papers relate a circumstance which will cause some astonishment, more especially as it is understood that on a former occasion the home authorities were not backward in abetting their displeasure. Certain Siamese priests went to Kandy for the purpose of seeing and worshipping the relic called the tooth of Buddha, which is carefully preserved by our Government. Sir Colin Campbell, it is stated, was at first unwilling that the tooth should be displayed; but he was at length prevailed on to give his consent, and the sacred tooth was exhibited to the adoring priests, in the presence of Lord Elphinstone, by Mr. Mercer, the assistant government agent.

A cargo in the yard, of large average, of last year's import, was sold at nearly 21d.—bayer paying all expenses from the time of landing. The demand for all kinds continues good, and the stocks are reducing rapidly.

New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Fir Planks and Boards.—The only sales from the quay have been, with cargo, in which mason St. John Spruce were sold at 24 per foot of 2 inches. The stocks are reducing, and holders are firm in prices.

Dartmouth, May 21.—The Lady Alice Hamilton, from Aliona, for St. John, N. B., has come in here to examine her bottom, having been on shore.

The German Papers give currency to the state M. Liebig, the celebrated Professor of Chemistry at the University of Giessen, has discovered a mineral substance which when combined with Guano will produce one of the most fertilizing manures known. It is added that Junk-stock Company with a capital of £120,000 sterling, composed for the most part of leading English capitalists, was immediately on the discovery being made, formed for the purpose of carrying on a large scale the manufacture of the new compound. Among the subscribers are several eminent Professors of Agriculture, who according to the "Impartial de Rhin" give out the application of this substance to the culture of land will produce an entire revolution in the Agricultural system.

SINGULAR AND AFFECTING CIRCUMSTANCE.—One day last week two children belonging to a farmer of the name of Darcey, residing on the Petty Harbour Road, having left their home to go to play in the woods remained away so long that their Parents became uneasy about them. The eldest, however, (a boy of about six years of age) returned in the evening, alone, and on being asked where his brother was, he replied that he thought he came home before him. Night approaching, and the child not making his appearance, the neighbourhood was alarmed, and searched and search made, but all was ineffectual—the child could not be found. The next day the neighbours assembled and forming their selves into parties went in different directions into the woods, but their exertions proved unsuccessful. The search was however, continued for three days without effect, and all hopes seemed to have fled from the minds of the distracted parents, when fortunately, a man who went gunning in the woods for amusement, fancying that he heard the cry of a child at a distance, went in the direction, and there found the child lying by the side of a pond, a distance of three miles from its home. He lost no time in restoring the little innocent to his grateful parents, and after some nourishment having been given to him, the stomach being weak he discharged a quantity of grass and herbs, on which food he subsisted three days and three nights, and strange to say the child is not quite four years old.—Newfoundland Courier.

It appears by a letter from our Colonial Secretary, that on certain representations made by the American Minister at the Court of St. James, the Fishery of the Bay of Fundy has been granted to the United States, with the proviso only, that they shall not exercise their right within three miles of any Bay.

Dawning Street, 30th March, 1845.—"Sir, I have the honor to acquaint you for your information and guidance, that Her Majesty's Government have had under their consideration the claims of Citizens of the United States to fish in the Bay of Fundy, a claim which has hitherto been rested on the ground that the Bay is included within the British Possessions."

"Her Majesty's Government feel satisfied that the Bay of Fundy has been rightly claimed by Great Britain as a Bay, within the Treaty of 1818; but they conceive that the relaxation of the exercise of that right would be attended with mutual advantage to both countries;—to the United States, as conferring a material benefit on their Fishing Trade, and to Great Britain and the United States conjointly and equally, by the removal of a fertile source of disagreement between them. It has accordingly been announced to the United States Government, that American Citizens would henceforward be allowed to fish in any part of the Bay of Fundy, provided they do not approach, except in the cases specified in the Treaty of 1813, within three miles of the entrance of any Bay on the Coast of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick."

Melancholy Disaster.—Intelligence has been received at New Orleans, by an arrival at that place from the Island of Jamaica, that a ship disaster had occurred on the Corridors of the Andes. The snow, it is reported, descended in fearful quantities, from the Parana de Roix, (which is situated on the western side of the plains of Marquita, and from 150 to 200 miles west of Bogota), and destroyed a large and populous district. It is supposed that twelve hundred lives have been sacrificed by this fearful calamity.—Gleaner.

ARRIVAL OF THE

The English Mail by the Steamer Caledonia, arrived at Halifax on Tuesday the 19th inst. after a passage of 13 days, and was not received here until last evening (Tuesday) taking nearly two thirds of the time to travel from Halifax here that the Steamers do to come out to this country.

By this arrival we are in possession of London dates to the 4th and Liverpool to the 5th June.

We give a Summary of the news by this arrival in our columns this morning.

The steamer Hibernia was 13 days on her last passage home from Halifax.

The Post Office financial accounts, just published, show that the revenue derived from the penny postage exceeded, in 1844, the amount of the previous year by £1000. The net revenue of the last year was £719,357.

The London Times says:—"We understand that the proposed treaty with Brazil has been abandoned."

On the 27th ult., the Whiting Shoal, in the Thames, was forced by a galvanic battery and 40 feet of it displaced.

The Customs have decreed that goods imported into this country on which no duty is paid, may be exported on free cocket. Formerly, the owners had to enter into a bond for the export double the value of the duty on goods.

Government, it is said, intends to institute an extensive and minute inquiry into the causes influencing the health of troops stationed in British Colonies.

The steam-ship Great Britain is expected in the Mersey on the 3d of July, and will leave Liverpool for New York on the 26th. She continues, as heretofore, to excite great interest in the Thames.

MURDER ON THE HIGH SEAS.—A Spaniard, named Michael Moore, was brought up at the Liverpool Police Court, charged with the murder of John Campbell, boatswain of the English ship Mountain. When the vessel was out 14 days, he stabbed the captain in the abdomen. He is believed to be insane.

Eighteen females were crushed or trampled to death, and fifty seriously injured, owing to a false alarm of fire in a cigar manufactory, at Huerta, near Valencia, on the 3d ult.

MASONIC.—Yesterday being the anniversary of St. John the Baptist, the Masonic fraternity of this place formed a procession from Mason Hall, accompanied by the Amateur Band, and proceeded to Church to attend Divine Service. After hearing an impressive discourse by Br. Dr. Alley, they returned to their Lodge, and from thence to Driscoll's Hotel, where they partook of an excellent dinner. It gave us pleasure to notice a number of visiting Brethren from the neighborhood of Eastport and Calais, in the procession, and we trust that the good feeling exhibited on this occasion may long continue and that "brotherly love and every christian virtue may unite us."

A congratulatory address from the Magistrates and other inhabitants of the City of Fredericton, agreed upon at a public meeting, and signed by persons of different religious denominations, was presented to His Lordship the Bishop of Fredericton on Wednesday last. The address was moved by the Hon. L. A. Wilton—a Wesleyan Methodist. His Lordship delivered a most eloquent extemporaneous reply to the address, which occupied about twenty minutes in the delivery.

very, in which he earnestly inculcated the doctrine of Christian charity.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

Our Collector will call upon such of our Subscribers as are indebted to us for the last year, with their accounts when we trust they will pay them. Many are in arrears for upwards of two years, and some even more; these persons should remember that our expenses are necessarily large, and that we cannot meet them unless they "pay up." Publishers do not live upon air, neither can they improve the appearance of their papers without means. Those who do not pay, will have their names struck from our list, and we shall try the majesty of the law. To such of our Subscribers as pay regularly we tender our acknowledgements, it is them alone, that have cheered us on our way, and enabled us to continue our publication, and no effort on our part shall be wanting to merit a continuance of their support. We intend purchasing new type, and publishing more reading matter, as soon as the debts due are paid.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Guy's Hospital, St. Thomas's Hospital, and the London Hospital one more outcome—Pearce Driscoll, aged nine son of Police constable Driscoll, H 24, residing at No. 11, Brunswick street Commercial Road East, London, had been for several months a patient at the above institutions, but without obtaining the least relief. He was not expected to live an hour when first the above medicines were used by him; his legs were contracted, with four abscesses on his person; he was, however, out of danger in one day, and could put his foot to the ground in three days, by means of Holloway's medicines.
