An Official Directory
To Mr D B Dover we are indebted for a copy of the Official Directory and Atlas, recently issued by the Grand Trunk Railway Co. It contains an alphabetical list of the stations on lines owned, leased, or operated by the Grand Trunk, together with the names of stations where stockyards and track scales are situated, a list of industries and shippers and other information useful to business men. The work contains a page view of the town of Berlin.

Early Potatoes.
Guelph Mercury, June 29th: "Mr Joshua Kribs, of the York road, deserves the medal for growing very early potatoes. He planted some of the Early Fortune variety in the garden in the latter end of April. He dug up sufficient this morning for the family's dinner. The potatoes as a rule were pretty well grown and this variety is fairly prolific. This is the earliest potato-see we have heard of this season. Mr Kribs dug potatoes at the same time last year."

This may be early, but Mr Harry Davidson of Doon, had new potatoes on the 24th of June—five days earlier, so the medal should go to him.

Hatz-Fleishhauer
Stratford Herald—A very pretty wedding ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock Wednesday, June 30th at the residence of Otto Fleishhauer, lumber merchant, this city, being the union of Miss C Fleishhauer to Edward Hatz, Public school teacher, Godshill. Rev. I. M. Mayer, pastor of the Evangelical church, officiated in the presence of a number of guests. The scene was an exceedingly interesting one and at the conclusion of the ceremony a feast was served and some time spent by the contracting parties in receiving the congratulations and well wishes of their friends, after which the young couple took the train for San Francisco, Cal., where they will attend the great Christian Endeavor convention.

They Do the Necessary Every Time.
The following testimonial received by the Stempel Extinguisher Co., speaks for itself: Waterloo, Ont., June 25th, 1897. MESSRS. STEMPER OBERG & Co., Berlin Ont.
Gentlemen,—On Monday June 25th, fire started in our business ripening room and was not noticed until the fire had made fair headway, caused by the upsetting of a large Rochester lamp which had been filled a very few minutes previous, saturating the floor quite freely with oil: in case of charge of the above firm's fire extinguisher put an end to what appeared for a short time would result in a serious fire. I would recommend the extinguishers most highly to every one.
Respectfully yours,
GEO. HASENLEUE.

A Very Sad Death
The many friends of Mr and Mrs R J M. Webber, Waterloo, will be pained to hear of the sad death of their seven months old child, who died on Friday evening. The little boy had been ill for only a short time and medical aid was called in on Friday morning. The physician pronounced it to be a case of diphtheria, and despite all that tender care and physician's skill could avail, his young spirit took its flight on Friday evening. The remains were interred this morning. The grief-stricken parents have the heartfelt sympathies of the Twin-city and community in this hour of bereavement.

Wearily wives, mothers, and daughters—tired nurses, waitresses, and help—tired women of all classes should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the kind they need to give pure blood, firm nerves, buoyant spirits, and refreshing sleep. There is no one equal to Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

'Forest Hill' Invaded
Mr. and Mrs. (Reeve) Rumpel Celebrate Their Silver Wedding
Taken by Surprise by a Large Number of Friends

FOREST HILL, the beautiful grounds and residence of Rev. Rumpel and family, presented a most enchanting view Friday evening, being illuminated with hundreds of multi-colored Chinese lanterns, whose mellow glow lent an additional charm to the beautiful scene of flowers and shrubbery. It was on July 2nd, 1872, that Mr and Mrs Rumpel joined hands and hearts in matrimony, and to celebrate the 25th anniversary of their wedding day, the family circle and a few relatives, met in a social reunion on Friday evening.

Mr and Mrs Rumpel were taken by complete surprise by the ladies of the Hospital Auxiliary, of which Mrs Rumpel is a most active worker, (and its president), who entered upon the scene with song, each lady carrying a Chinese lantern. The visitors were heartily welcomed, and after being received, gathered in the spacious drawing room, where Mrs Rumpel was made the recipient of the following address, read by Mrs F Colquhoun, and a case of dainty and beautiful silver ware, Mrs (Dr) D S Bowly making the presentation.

Berlin, July 2nd, 1897.
DEAR MRS. RUMPEL,
We ask your pardon for intruding upon you so very unceremoniously, but at the same time we feel sure that you will forgive us when we say we came only to offer our sincere congratulations and good wishes to Mr. Rumpel and yourself up to a most happy and pleasant occasion, your Silver Wedding Anniversary.

We pray that peace may be within your walls and that prosperity and success may attend your every step. We are glad to hear that you are both well and ready with hand and heart to help those in sorrow and distress. And, as the years glide by, may the love of the anniversary be dimmed only by the approaching rays of your Golden Wedding.

We bring you a very humble offering in commemoration of this day and trust that you will accept it in the same kindly spirit in which it is presented.
We remain your loving friends and fellow-workers.

J. L. Colquhoun, Nellie G. Lang, Lizzie H. Bowly, S. Bowman, C. Brethaupt, M. E. Bowly, J. E. Clement, H. Luckner, R. H. Simon, T. B. S. Snider, Mrs Lizzie Lang, M. H. Reddick, M. Annie Krug, C. C. Brethaupt, H. Bohmer, H. Morz, Mrs. H. Bohmer, Marie A. Kaiser, Detroit; C. Kranz, M. Jankie, L. Oelchlaeger, M. Specker, E. A. Brethaupt, E. Schmalz, Mary Lang.

Soon after, the members of the Concordia Singing Society appeared, which was surprise number two, and were entertained by the green by Mr Rumpel, who was presented with an address in German. Refreshments were served on the veranda, the young ladies acting as waitresses. Selections by the Concordia vocalists, with music on the harp, banjo and mandolin, by Miss O Rumpel, Miss Snider and Mr Oscar Rumpel, respectively, contributed to the enjoyment of the guests throughout the evening.

The successful function was brought to a close at a seasonable hour, the guests present, but voicing the hearty sentiments of Mr and Mrs Rumpel's many friends, in extending their hearty congratulations upon so happily reaching the twenty-fifth milestone of life together, and expressing the hope that they might be spared to participate in a more important event, 25 years hence, to celebrate their Golden Wedding. The News-Record heartily echoes the expressions of good will, as few people are more willing and ready to assist in every good cause, both in individual cases and in the interests of the Twin city as a whole than Mr and Mrs Geo Rumpel.

Among the list of guests, which reached about 100, the following from a distance were noticed:—Mrs Rumpel, of Detroit; a sister of Mrs Rumpel, Mrs Morley, Chicago; Miss Winkler, Hamilton; Miss Scott, Galt; Miss Gertrude Bridgeland, Bracebridge; and Miss E. Briegel, Montreal.

Honor to a Berlin Boy

Davis, one of the Toronto Public School Trustees, to the pupil of any grade who should pass the second best examination in Temperance and Hygiene. Each class in the city may send two pupils to the examination and the questions are set and the papers marked by a committee of the Canadian Temperance League.

Charlie was the youngest showrotee, and some were five years his senior. For this reason the people of Gladstone Avenue School were delighted to honor the hero of the hour at the closing exercises on Wednesday. All the trustees of the ward were present and the presentation was made by Trustee J. M. Godfrey L.L.D., and the boys and girls sang "For he's a jolly good fellow" with such vim as to show the high place he occupies in their estimation.
