From Miss Ford.

CHEN-TU, Dec. 8th, 1896.

DEAR MRS. STRACHAN,—Your letter from away down east to Miss Brackbill just received. We were so glad to hear from you, as it had seemed so long since any word had come from home. And now for my bit of news.

You will be surprised to hear of an addition to our home, even before Miss Foster's arrival. It came about in this way. Ten days ago, early on a raw, damp, foggy morning, a coolie was sent out on an errand. He quickly returned, saying there was a baby in a deep ditch just below our com-
