When Company Comes to Our House.

When company comes to our house
Why that's the time I hate
I'm kept as quiet as a mouse,
And mother makes me wait
Till all the folks have gotten through
Their dinner and their talk,
And though I'm cross and hungry too
You bet I "walk the chalk."

When company comes to our house
Why that's the time I hate
Cause that old preacher, I'der know
Is there as sure as fate,
And one day when I went to church
He spoke right out and said
That oftentimes a rod of birch
To pious pathways laid.

When company comes to our house,
Why that's the time I hate
Cause in cold water then they douse
My dirty hands and pate,
And comb my hair and dress me up,
And tell me to keep clean,
And not to tease the cat or pup
I think it's real mean!

When company comes to our house
Why that's the time I hate
Cause then it takes the pickled nose
So long to reach my plate,
And I must die a staidish roun
A-swalling all them things
But when at last I do sit down
The "goodies" left takes wings!

PUPILS' TALKS.

From the Girls' Side of the Institution

[BY KATH WELLS.]

-We have had changeable weather lately.
-Felicia Goose was much pleased to get a box from home containing some sweetmeats and clothing for the winter.
-Last Sunday night it snowed and in the morning we found that the sidewalk walks were covered, but it soon melted away.
-We heard that Eva Irvine, who is staying at home, is laid up with illness but we hope she will be all right in a few days.

-Last Monday Rose Corrigan received a letter from home saying that her little brother was dead. We all sympathize with her.
-We are very glad to have Mr. Douglas with us again. He has been sick for a month, but now has returned to the store again.

-Last week, Fannie Hall received a note of her sister Mabel, who was formerly a pupil of this school. We think it is a fine picture.
-On the 9th inst., the girls were allowed to go shopping in the city and we had an enjoyable time, although it was rather cold and windy.

-On the 11th inst., Beattie Woodley was glad to get a box from home, which was for her birthday, and she shared some sweetmeats with her little friends.
-The 13th inst. was one of our teachers, Miss Templeton's birthday. All her pupils wished her a very happy birthday and she gave them some talk.

-On the 9th inst. Gracie Little was glad to get a pretty picture from Maggie Hutchinson, who is now attending Gallaudet College. We wish her a successful college life.
-A few weeks ago Maud Thomas received a letter from her sister saying that she is going to England for the benefit of her health after Christmas. Maud says she will miss her very much.

-Miss Templeton was laid up with neuralgia for a few days. She was absent from her duties on Friday and Edith Wylie taught her class. We are glad to say that she is all right again.
-About three weeks ago, Miss Anne Butler came down one Sunday afternoon to see her friends and schoolmates. We were all very much pleased to see her and would be glad if she would come oftener.

-One Sunday night Mrs. Sully and Miss Connolly came to see Miss Dempsey and the girls here. They brought a large box of candies with them for the girls, which we enjoyed very much and thank them for their kindness. They are learning to make signs. We would like to see them often.

-Last Saturday night the little boys and girls had a party in the girls' sitting room, but the big ones did not attend it, they only assembled in the chapel and had an enjoyable time seeing the others telling stories. The party began at 7:30 and broke up at 8:30. The little ones had a nice time too.

-The man who goes only for himself couldn't be engaged in any smaller business now.

More Foot-ball.

Our boys played the High School again on the evening of the 12th. Our team took a goal just at the close of half time but the referee would not allow it, claiming that time was up, although it wanted several minutes. The city boys then managed to score by a chance shot taken in the darkness. Just as time was up Dubois made a run that has seldom been duplicated, passing three opponents around the left wing, he took the ball right to the mouth of the goal and shoulder to shoulder he and Chantler drove it through. There being no other witnesses close at hand, the city umpire and goal keeper took advantage of it and jollied the referee into believing it was no goal. Our boys all round put up a capital game and out-played their opponents.

Defective Hearing.

"A striking illustration of the influence of fatigue upon the nervous system," says Modern Medicine, "is afforded by an experiment conducted by an Italian physician some months ago. Twenty-four bicycle riders who had ridden thirty-two miles in two hours and a quarter were examined with reference to their hearing, and it was in nearly every instance found to be defective. After two hours' rest the hearing had become normal in most of them."
