A BOSTON young lady at the Union station in Portland, Me., wanted to buy a ticket for a way station, but had forgotten the name of the town. Being urged to make a guess at it, she replied, in blushing confusion, that it sounded like cats' whiskers." She got a ticket for Wiscasset.

GENTLEMEN, -About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the varts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.-MRS. WILLIAM CRAIG, Brighton, Ont.

GRATEFUL GUEST: liged to you, Mrs. McGinnis, for giving me exactly the half cup of coffee I asked for. You are the first person I ever saw whose 'half cup didn't overflow into the saucer." Amiable Hostess: I used to keep a boarding house, M. Byles.

DEAR SIRS,-In 1890 my body was covered with blotches and I was at last induced to try Burdock Blood Bitters; by the time I had used three and a-half bottles of it I was completely cured, and I cannot speak too highly of it.—MRS.
JAMES DESMOND, Halifax, N. S.

"IT is singular that Jobson should marry such a useless woman as he has got. They say she can't so much as sew a button on his coat. Where did he become acquainted with her?" "He was introduced to her by his sister, who got acquainted with her at the sewing circle."

SCRIBBLEMS: Which do you think is the best of my short stories. Criticus: The shortest, by all means.

DR. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, the modern successful cure for coughs, colds, hoarseness, asthme, bronchitis, sore throat and all pu' monary complaints, is made from the best pectoral herbs and banks by the most skilful and scientific methods, and cannot fail to give prompt relief.

FRIEND: What was your graduation essay about? Mabel: the astronomers know about Mars. Dear me! Why did you choose that subject? Because I didn't have time to write much.

TRAVERS: I wish I had a dollar for every suit I have bought of you. Tailor (fervently): I wish I had fifty dollars for the last suit you bought.

GENTLEMEN,-My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and had no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on enquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as sle was getting worse all the time, she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.-E. WESTON, 15 Dalhousie Street, Montreal.

UNCLE ERASTUS : I doesn't be. l ebe in courtin' yo' chickuns befo' dey is hatched, judge, does yo'? Judge Twinkle: No, Uncle Erastus; but experience has taught me that in this neighbourhood one can't bigin too soon afterwards.

DEAR SIRS,-My little Jennie was very bad with La Grippe, which left a bad cough. I gave her Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and it soon cured her.-MRS. MCARTHUR, Copleston, Ont.

SHE: But I can't cook and I hate to wash dishes. He: Then I am decidedly the one you should marry. I can't afford to buy anything to cook, and so we won't need any dishes.

Young Architect (enthusiastically: Why, when you get into yourselves. Mrs. Nurich: Excuse me. It will be other people we won't know,
