Notice to Price V. Liners

Successful competitors in applying for their prizes, must in every case state the number of the competition in which they have been successful, and also the number and nature of the prize won. Attention to these particulars will facilitate matters, and save a good deal of time and trouble. Prize winners must invariably apply in the same hand-writing in which the original answer was sent, so that the letter and application may be compared before the prize is given out. The following sums must accompany applications for prizes, whether called for at the office or delivered by express or freight;

Panos, $20; Cabanet Organs, $5; Sewing Machines, $2; Tea Service, $1,50; Gold Watches, Silk Dresses $1; Other Dress Goods, 50e; Cake Baskets, 50e; Rings, 30e; Successful competitors in applying for ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WISSION 8 SCOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colle, and is the best remedy for diarrhear 25c a bottle.

It is the old man who has shunned w all his life who is continually saying. 'That boy ought to be set to work and kept at it."

As age creeps on apace, the various func-tions of the body grow weaker in their per-formance. Old people who suffer from in-creasing indigestion, torpically of the liver, and constipation, should give renewed imnetus to the action of the stomach, bile-sepetus to the action of the stomach, bite-se-creting organ and bowels, with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, from which and is never sought in vain.
