

THE NORTH-WEST EXPEDITION: OUR SPECIAL ARTIST AND HIS HORSE "OLD ROOSTER" LOST ON THE PRAIRIE

THE KILT COSTUME

The above improvement on the present style of Ladies' Fashions, was suggested by the following extract from a recent number of the CANADIAN ILLUSTRATED NEWS:

"The ladies are adopting the kilt, not in all its cool want of proportions, but as a skirt; the two flounces at the bottom of the skirt are called 'kilt,' being in imitation of the Highland dress, but one is on the skirt and another edges a wide flounce, so that the two 'kilts' are close together.
