

BE CAREFUL HOW YOU TALK
IN THE FAMILY.

How strange it is that we do not think more of the importance of conversation in our home life! Children are such imitators and take in so much that we do not think they are capable of understanding.

The discussion of the faults of others which they hear in the home circle often gives them a prejudice against very good people. We have our sins of omission and commission as well as our neighbors, and should be very careful about injuring our friends by talking over their faults before young people, who have not yet learned how to be charitable, and how to make allowances. Any one who has watched children at play cannot have failed to see how closely they imitate their elders.

"Walk in; I am so glad to see you, Mrs. White," said one little girl to a make-believe caller. "Take a seat. Don't be in a hurry to go. Really, must you go?" And when the imaginary caller had taken her departure, the little hostess exclaimed, "I'm glad she didn't stay any longer. She talks so much that she tires me out!"

The home topics should be bright and interesting, and improving both in character and education. We should be careful to leave out gossip and sensational stories of all kinds. There is so much prominence given to details of horrors in our daily papers that young people in reading them get false ideas of life. In England, not long since, a society was started that pledged itself to tell only the good things that were done in the world and to make them prominent, instead of the evil things that form such a large part of our daily papers and of many persons' conversation.

A ROYAL ORDER.—An order received in a recent European mail, by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., of this town, probably stands unique in the history of Canadian or American proprietary medicines. It came from St. Petersburg, Russia, enclosing a rouble note (65 cents) for a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the sender being the Count de Bodisco, Grand Chamberlain to His Majesty the Czar of Russia. It would appear that even royalty, in far away St. Petersburg, has learned of the virtue of this remarkable Canadian remedy, and turn to it for relief in preference to others. It is more than probable that in the near future, this unequalled blood builder and nerve tonic will be the standard remedy throughout the civilized world, as it is to-day in Canada, the United States and Great Britain. Its virtues cannot be too widely known. The rouble accompanying the order is a fair sample of Russian bank notes, and in this country is somewhat of a curiosity. The note is at the company's office and may be seen by any who have not had an opportunity of examining a specimen of Russian currency.—Brockville Times.
