MESSRS. FERRIS & Co.,

DEAR SIRS.—About two years ago I was in Philadelphia, and while there I bought one of your Steam Washers, and brought it home to my wife. She has been using it ever since, and is well pleased with it. It does all you claim for it, and every family should have one, for the saving on clothes every few months would more than pay for the machine.

CANCER

CURED

BY PLASTER.

This cut represents Mrs. Rowland, of 264 Gladstone Avenue, Toronto. She went under Dr. McCully's care for Bronchial Catarrh and general Female Debility, from which she began to rapidly recover, and then consulted us for Fungous Cancer at an angle of the jaw, on the right side of the face. Dr. McCully deemed it expedient to remove the cancer by plaster; did so, and Mrs. Rowland made an excellent recovery. As Dr. McCully is now removing more tumors and cancers than any surgeon in Canada, and so far has not lost a patient, it is to the personal interest of every person suffering from such diseases to place the case in his hands. Last Saturday we mortally wounded a poor professor in our ad.—"The woman on the stretcher for six months for hip joint disease, but who had only a bad femoral abscess." When the Professor saw the ad. he there and then asseverated in pure English vulgate that "he would bust Dr. McCully or that he would bust in the effort." He evidently means biz. If he fails we hope nobody will be found mean enough to call him Professor Bust. Another medico's blood is up, he lives on Jarvis Street, is sometimes attacked by "PERVERSE SPIRITS," and last week insulted two ladies who were inquiring for our office; the last words that reached their ears being "d—d quack" as they rushed away from a volley of expletives. This man was doctering Mr. Rothwell for a while, gave him neither relief nor value for his money, leaving the unfortunate man in a dying condition. Dr. McCully cured him, hence all the bile. Mr. Rothwell is a boot and shoe dealer, 282 Queen Street East, Toronto—call and hear his story, reader. Dr. McCully cures catarrh, cures all chronic diseases of bone, skin and blood, straightens crooked legs—see Miss Shales, 3 Dermot Place, off Carlton Street. Cures fits—write Mr. Ruthven, McNabb Street, Hamilton; and, in fact, is now the only reliable specialist in Canada, at once an operator and a man that treats disease on common-sense principles.
