The London Times devotes a long editorial to the question how Lepine should be dealt with? It thus sums up :-

a The political acts of the malcontents on the Red River have been wholly forgiven, and though the death of Scott was at best a brutal assertion of the authority of the Provisional Government, still it is so inextricably associated with the political objects of the rising, that no statesman can regard it as an ordinary murder. To put Lepine to death for his share in it would be to add brutality to brutality, and to stain the history of Canada with a blot of which the children of those who at present cry out for the execution of the convict would be heartily ashamed."

The dwelling house of Judge Vanbrunt was attacked by burglars a few nights ago. The Judge fired on the scoundrels, killing one of them, Mosher, and wounding another, Doherty, mortally. Before his death the latter stated that his accomplice was the man who abducted the boy Charlie Ross, and this it added, has been confirmed.

In our Provincial Legislature a motion tantamount to "want of confidence" in the actual Ministry upon the grounds that they have been too remiss in the Tannery Land Swap business, has been negatived, by a majority of ten.

TEMPERANCE IN THE TOWNSHIP OF TYENDINAGA.

We tender our apologies to the writer of the following communication for the delay in its publication. It was misled.

To the Editor of THE TRUE WITNESS.

Sir;-In the many articles that appear from time to time in the TRUE WITNESS regarding the progress of Catholicity in Ontario, I do not remember to have seen any allusion to the position the Church occupies in this township of Tyendinaga which, I think, may fairly claim to be the banner Catholic township of Ontario.

There is, I believe, in this province no other rural Township that can boast of two Catholic Churches and two of the most pious and worthy elergymen in Ontario, resident in and supported wholly within its limits. Those only who live at a distance from church and Catholic associations can appreciate the advantages we enjoy in having churches within casy reach, and schools almost wholly under our own control. Unmindful of the advantages they enjoy, and of which so many of their coreligionsts in Canada are deprived, it is to be regretted that in years past too many of our congregations have brought discredit on their holy religion by their unfortunate propensity to the fatal vice of intemperance. We have here as well as elsewhere, too many of those low unlicensed grogshops, whose proprietors regardless alike of human or divine laws, do not hesitate to prosecute their nefarious traffic on every possible occasion, even during time of divine service. To remove this, the only blot on the fair name of the Irish Catholics of this Township, a great and very successful effort has been made during the past year, two temperance Societies, one in each division, have been established and already the good results are so manifest as to attract the attention of all classes in the community. Many of the most noted inebriates are now our hardest workers in the cause, and their example induces many to make an effort to reform who have devoted many of the best years of their lives to the one sole object of gratifying their thirst for what effect your words and example may have on Liberals and profess to love justice and to be ad- ceived holy communion. The Dominicans were those who are not? Is there one of those unfortunates vocates of equal rights avow that you, in the very efficiently assisted in their labors by Rev. meet with on the street, half naked, a burden to that they are weak and subject to your will; that themselves, their families and society, but can re- you are tyrants and desire all the world to know call the time when they were as confident of their power of self-control as you, and it may be their the weak; that they, if not slaves, are subject to vespers came to $225, which was much more than confidence that ruined them. Is there an inmate your will and must to gratify your lust of power, was expected. On Tuesday Father Kilroy made of our jails, our poorhouses, or hospitals, who cannot constantly drink the cup of humiliation and injus-recall the time when he could take a social glass tice to the dregs?—St. John Freeman with a friend without danger of excess? Then why will you throw obstacles in the way of those who advocate the only safe course, for the weak, as well as for the strong.

"By their fruits you shall know them." Look at any mission where a total abstinence society has been started and encouraged, and you see men who had lost hope of themselves now respected and happy, families that were in misery and wretchedness now prosperous and contented, the churches filled with men who were not seen there tention. We have investigated as carefully and for years, children attending school that never en- thoroughly, and impartially, the working of the tered a school before. Can all the advocates of moderation in temperance in the Dominion point | We have enquired at all reliable official sources, an well might you say to the poor inebriate. "Go drink until health, self-respect and reason is lost! till your family starve and your friends hang their heads with shame when they meet you," as say "take a glass with a friend when necessary and no more" the necessity would speedily arise and the first taste would create a passion for more that would be limited only by the means the unfortunate victim had for gratifying it. Then let all who have the welfure of our countrymen at heart rally around our Total Abstinence Banner and bear it triumphantly onward until it carries peace and happiness to every Catholic home.

A TOTAL ABSTAINER.

THE NEW BRUNSWICK SCHOOLS.

THE SCHOOL WAR-ANOTHER PRISONER.-M. J. MC Kenna, a young man, a student in the Christian Brothers' Academy, who is making many sacrifices to obtain a good education, was arrested on Saturday for the school taxes and other taxes due to the town of Portland and put in goal, although his father made affidavit that he is under twenty years of age.

Those who manage Common School matters in Portland have commenced to build expensive school houses, and even the scholars of the Catholic schools must pay a share of the cost, or in the name of liberty and progress be taken from their schools to goal.

On Monday at noon Constable Hancock sold at auction on the Market Square the goods lately seized at the Bishop's Palace for non-payment of the school tax. Mounted on the top of an express wagon, in a drenching rain, and surrounded by a crowd of two or three hundred persons, who laughed and jeered at him at every turn, the constable did not appear to relish his position, which certainly was an unenviable one. And one that we should hope few would care to occupy He first offered for sale the Bishop's carriage, but for fully five minutes he endeavoured in vain to get a bid. At last, when he was about to give up in despair, some one bid $100. Other bids followed, generally for small sums, and after about ten minutes more, during which Hancock hard to force hidding, he succeeded in getting up to $210. More than this he could not obtain, and he was forced to knock the carriage down to Mr. John McGourty for the sum named. The Bishop's taxes were $217. 10, so that the constable, to obtain the full amount, will have to make another seizure. Rev. Mr. Murray's arm chair and centre table were next sold, and were bought—the chair by Mr. John Coholan for $8, and the table by Mr. James O'Brien for $12. This sale realized something more than the amount required, Rev. Mr. Murray's taxes being $13.40, The books belonging to key. Mr. Casp next offered, and after another vain effort on the part of Hancock to work up the bids, were sold to Mr. James O'Brien for $7.25, which fails far short of paying the rev. gentleman's tax bill which amounts to $18.05. Here also there will probably be another levy. The sale over the crowd quietly dispersed, the carriage was taken possession of by a number of persons and drawn up King street, the express waggon containing the other articles was driven in another direction, and Hancock, apparently sick of his work, which he well might be, suddenly disappeared -St John Freeman WHAT IS IT REQUIRED FOR ?- The Bishop, asks this most pertinent question, What is it required for? He says :- "The Catholics support their own schools; why then force them to pay this odious tax, without giving them any return? What is it required for? The taxes of the wealthy Pro-testant majority should be sufficient for their own schools. The Catholics of New Brunswick are as loyal and faithful as the people of any other portion of the Dominion. Should not the same consideration be shown to them, in legislating on education, that is given to the Protestant minority in Quebec or the Catholic Minority in Ontario."

This question every Protestant in the Province who desires to be thought honest-not to say liberal-who values his own reputation and the reputation of the country should seriously ask himself and endeavour to answer. While it was possible for him to delude himself with the notion that the opposition of Catholics to this school system was a mere passing whim founded upon neither reason nor conviction and that in a little time they would look on the matter as he does, it was perhaps possible for even liberal, well-minded Protestants to clude this question, "What is it required for?" But now, when the sacrifices of three years, the liberal contributions of Catholics, the sale of their property, the imprisonment of priests and laymen, the ransack-ing of the Bishop's palace, and sale at auction of the chattels of Bishop, priests and laymen prove that Catholics are sincere and that they endure all these wrongs patiently for conscience sake, there is no longer any room for mistake or delusion. It is now proved beyond all doubt or question that Catholics are conscientiously opposed to this system; that Catholics will not send their children to those schools; that Catholics will support schools of their own wherever it is possible for them to do so; that Catholics will never pay this school tax except on compulsion. These facts and truths having been now so fully and clearly demonstrated, the question "What is it required for ?" demands an answer. In St. John, for instance, the Catholics are the least wealthy part of the population. Why is a large share of the money which they can earn actually by the sweat of their brow to be torn from them by process of law for the maintenance of the schools which only the children of Protestants attend? No part of the money raised is wanted for the education of the children of Catholics, who are more than one-third of the population. For what, then, is the money that you glory in tyranny and in the oppression of cupied. The voluntary offerings at the masses and

The Acadian Recorder, a Protestant paper of Nova Scotia deprecates the agitation on the School Question which some of the Protestant Ministers are striving to stir up in that Province. To BE CONTESTED .- We are informed that Mr. White intends to contest the return of Mr. Mackenzie in Montreal West, as several affidavits setting forth corrupt acts will be forthcoming. On the other hand a leader in the Reform ranks carries evidence in his pocket, which, he says, will convict Mr. White's agents of bribery. It is very probable application will be made in the Superior Court to have the 57 rejected, and doubtful votes examined, with a view to ascertain whether any of them can count or not.

HAMILTON, Dec. 14.—The County Council of Wentworth having now under its control all the leading roads of the municipality, have passed a by-law to be voted on by the people on the 16th January next for their through reconstruction.
