Mercantile Summary.

A PARTNERSHIP has been formed between B. F. Bell and Alex. Bremner, who have purchased the Tilsonburg tannery and will continue the business as Bell & Co.

We learn that the old and well-known firm of S. Greenshields, Son & Co., of Montreal, have opened in Vancouver an agency of their dry goods importing house. Mr. Skene is in charge of it.

The creditors of C. F. Henderson, a fancy goods dealer at Nananee, have compromised his liabilities of $3,073 at fifty cents in the dollar. His assets are placed at $2,900, which is, we believe, his own valuation.

For about four years, Mr. J. Bartley, who bears a favorable reputation, has been keeping a general store at Tilbury Centre. Unable to meet his payments or to effect any arrangement, he has made an assignment.

A MONTREAL agency has been established by the Toronto wholesale dry goods house of Messrs. Tait, Burch & Co. It is on St. James' street, near the Bank of British North America, in that city, and is under the charge of Mr. W. C. Craig.

TORONTO is getting talked about (in other cities) as a centre of real estate speculation and speculative building, to a greater degree than she perhaps deserves. It is well to be warned, however, by the opinion of onlookers, and by the experience of the past, lest the "boom" which has certainly sent land, here and there, in the outskirts, to absurdly high prices, shall lead people to measureland in the city generally by such excessive values. Meanwhile we observe that one John Campbell, who began building houses on speculation in April last, has already assigned. Liabilities are not large.
