

ARTICLE 4

To enjoy the benefits of the tariff advantages provided for in Article 1 of this Convention, articles, produced or manufactured in Canada, shall be conveyed without transshipment from a Canadian port or from a port of a country enjoying most-favoured-nation treatment in tariff matters in Poland into a port or ports of the Polish Customs Territory.

Reciprocally, to enjoy the benefits of the tariff advantages provided for in Article 3 of this Convention, articles, produced or manufactured in Poland shall be conveyed without transshipment from a port or ports of the Polish Customs Territory or from a port of a country enjoying the benefits of the British Preferential or Intermediate Tariff, into a sea, lake or river port in Canada.

Provided, however, that articles produced or manufactured in Poland on importation into Canada, and articles produced or manufactured in Canada on importation into Poland, shall not be subjected to other or more onerous conditions with respect to direct shipment than are imposed on the like articles imported from any other foreign country.

ARTICLE 5

No prohibition or restriction shall be maintained or imposed by either of the High Contracting Parties on the importation of any article the produce or manufacture of the territories of the other Party which shall not equally extend to the importation of the like articles being the produce or manufacture of any other foreign country.

This provision shall not be applicable to prohibitions or restrictions, which already exist or may be imposed in future on importation or exportation, provided that such prohibitions or restrictions are issued with regard to:

- (a) Public order or the internal or external security of the state;
- (b) Public health or the protection of animals or plants against disease;
- (c) Articles constituting a state-monopoly.

In the event of import licences being required for the importation of any class of goods into the territories of either of the High Contracting Parties, the general conditions of procedure under which licences may be obtained for the importation of such goods shall not be less favourable than those applied in the case of similar goods the produce or manufacture of any other foreign country.

ARTICLE 6

Articles produced or manufactured in the territories of either of the High Contracting Parties, exported to the territories of the other, shall not be subjected to other or higher export duties or charges than those paid on the like articles exported to any other foreign country.

Nor shall any prohibition or restriction, with the exception of those enumerated in Article 5 of this Convention, be maintained or imposed on the exportation of any articles from the territories of either of the High Contracting Parties to the territories of the other which shall not equally extend to the exportation of the like articles to any other foreign country.

ARTICLE 7

Articles produced or manufactured in the territories of either of the High Contracting Parties, passing in transit through the territories of the other, in conformity with the laws of the country, shall be reciprocally free from all transit duties, whether they pass direct, or whether during transit they are unloaded, warehoused or reloaded.
