

- (c) In the event that an inspection of a Community vessel takes place and the inspector concludes that there is a discrepancy between the figures recorded in the vessel's log book and his own estimate sufficient to require further action pursuant to Canadian regulations the inspector shall inform the captain of the inspector's estimated figures.

Brussels, January 1, 1984