

- to follow the best public sector employment practices and to promote staff involvement, to the greatest degree practicable, in all aspects of the Passport Office's operations;
- to respond to international requests for advice on matters of effective and efficient delivery of a secure passport; and
- to play a leadership role in promoting the international use of machine readable passports and developments in passport technology in order to further the facilitation and security of international travel.