

become effective until the Council has received consents from States whose assessments represent not less than 80 per cent of the total assessments prescribed in paragraphs 2 (a) (i) in the case of the LORAN Services or 2 (a) (ii) in the case of the Greenland Services.

(c) Consent to initial assessment under this Arrangement shall constitute agreement to continuing participation in the Arrangement as regards the Services in respect of which the consent to initial assessment was given, provided that such consent shall not constitute commitment of funds for any subsequent period until such funds are made available by the appropriate legislative body of the State concerned whenever such action is required.

12. In the event that aircraft of any State not listed in paragraph 3 appear to benefit from either or both of the Services to an extent which, in the opinion of the Council, justifies this course, the Council shall enter into negotiations with that State for the purpose of providing for its participation in this Arrangement.

13. (a) Any of the States may withdraw from participation in this Arrangement with effect from the 31st December in any year, as regards either or both of the Services, by giving notice in writing to the Council before the preceding 1st March.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding sub-paragraph, in the event of any emergency arising which is beyond the control of the State concerned and which prevents such State from making use of the Services, or either of them, such State may withdraw from participation in this Arrangement, in respect of the Services which it is prevented from using, by giving three months' notice in writing to the Council.

(c) If the Council terminates the Agreement for any cause in respect of either or both of the Services at a time when there is any balance due to and unrecovered by Denmark on account of capital expenditures undertaken by Denmark pursuant to the Agreement, the States shall consult with the Council and Denmark to determine an equitable amount of compensation to be paid to Denmark on account of such balance and further shall consent to be assessed by the Council for such compensation in proportion to the assessments for the current period with respect to the Services concerned, subject to adjustment for any contribution payable under sub-paragraph (d) of this paragraph.

(d) Any State which withdraws from participation in this Arrangement pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) or (b) of this paragraph shall continue to be liable to an assessment on account of capital expenditures previously undertaken by Denmark pursuant to the Agreement, proportionate to its assessment with respect to the Services concerned for the period current at the time of such withdrawal. Such assessment should be made in accordance with sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph.

14. The Council shall convene a conference of all interested Governments:

(a) when requested by two or more of the States or by Denmark, or by any one of the States if a meeting has not been held during the previous five years;
