

Carole Robert

Coordinator for Youth Mobility and Academic Exchanges with Europe

Born in Montréal, Québec, PHD in Political Economy from the London School of Economy and in Sociology for Development at the University of Paris 1. Master degrees in Political Sciences and Sociology from the Institut des Sciences Politiques à Paris. License in Sociology in Montreal. Joined Canada's Foreign Service in 1981.

A career Diplomat with a specialisation in European Affairs and Economic Policy including G8-Summits. She has been posted abroad as Counsellor in London (1996-2000) and Brussels (1988-1992) to our Missions accredited to the EU and to Dakar as a First Secretary (1983-1985). She has also served as the Co-ordinator for the Summit of the World Youth Day 2002 (2000-2002); Director for the Policy Division on Services, Investment and Intellectual Property and Chief Negotiator for several bilateral Investment treaties; Deputy Director, Western Europe Relations Division (1992-1996).

In September 2002, Carole Robert took up her current assignment in Ottawa as Co-ordinator for Youth Mobility and Academic Exchanges with Europe.