2.   Each designated airline shall have the right to convert and remit to its country, on demand, funds obtained in the normal course of its operations. Conversion and remittance shall be permitted without restrictions at the rate of exchange applicable to current transactions which is in effect at the time such revenues are presented for conversion and remittance, and shall not be subject to any charges except those normally made by banks for carrying out such conversion and remittance. Such transfer shall be made in accordance with the foreign exchange regulations of the Contracting Party concerned.

ARTICLE XV

Airline Representatives

1.   The designated airline or airlines of one Contracting Party shall have the right to establish representative offices in the territory of the other Contracting Party and, on the basis of reciprocity, to bring into and to maintain in the territory of the other Contracting Party their representatives and commercial, operational and technical staff as required in connection with the operation of agreed services.

2.   These staff requirements may, at the option of the designated airline or airlines of one Contracting Party, be satisfied by its own personnel or by using the services of any other organization, company or airline operating in the territory of the other Contracting Party, and authorized to perform such services in the territory of that Contracting Party.

3.   The representatives and staff shall be subject to the laws and regulations in force of the other Contracting Party, and, consistent with such laws and regulations:

   (a)   each Contracting Party shall, on the basis of reciprocity and with the minimum of delay, grant the necessary employment authorizations, visitor visas or other similar documents to the representatives and staff referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article; and

   (b)   both Contracting Parties shall facilitate and expedite the issuance of employment authorizations for personnel performing certain temporary duties not exceeding ninety (90) days.
