

for Refugees from 1962 to 1965, when he was elected High Commissioner. His mandate was twice renewed unanimously by the General Assembly as the High Commissioner for Refugees, a post which he occupied for twelve years.