I thank you for the ample provisions you have made to protect the country from the possible introduction of choleri, and I trust that the precautions taken will result in guarding agrainst any danger from that source.

The liberal provisions made for the proper representation of Cansda at the World's Columbian Exposition will, I doubt not, enable this country to makt: a worthy exhibit of her resources and progress atmong the nations of the world.
The various Acts which you have placed upon the Statute-bwok will contribute to the maintenance of public security and the continued progress of the country:

cicutlemer of the Housc of Commons:

I thank you for the liberal provisions you have made for the requirements of the public service.
Homourellu Fientlemon of the Senute:
cientlemen of the House of Commoms:
I feel with deep regret that the period of my ofticial connection with the Dominion is drawing towards its close and that in all probability I am taking leave of you for the last time. Lest this should be the ease, I desire to avail myself of the present occasion to express my abiding interest in all that concerns the welfare of Canada, and my sincere affection to her people, who have never failed to testify their loyalty to the person and throne of our Sovereign, and to show hindness and consideration to her representative. It will ever be my sincere desire to be of service to the Dominion and I shall continue to cherish feelings of the warmest solicitude for the welfare and prosperity of those amongst whom I have been placed during the past five years.

I pray that the blessing of Almighty Gord may at all times attend you.

The Speaker of the Senate then said :

Honourable Cientlanen of the Senete, and licutlemen of the Hollse of Commons:
It is His Exceldency the Gormanoh-Gexfrhi』s will and pleasure, that this Piarliament be prorogued until Thursday, the eleventh day of May next, to be bere hedd, and this larliament is accordingly prurogrued until the eleventh day of May next.
