

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—Con.

Bank of Canada—Con.

Leave of absence for Paul W. Brooks, 634

Banking and Commerce com. report, 2637-38

Black sheets for galvanizing, 2055

Blank cheques

Expenditures under, 2171

For unnamed sums, policy of Liberal party, 637-38

Blind persons, pensions, 992, 1824-57

B.N.A. Act, amendment, M. (Mr. Coldwell), 457

British war office, purchase of guns through, 1119

Brooks, Paul W., leave of absence for, 634

Bruce, Hon. Mr., reference to, 698

Budget, 1271, 1390. Adoption by Minister of Finance of suggestions made in 1931 and since followed in budget speeches; effect of raising revenues on capacity of people to pay, 1390; inability of Canadian people to raise by taxation any substantial sum in excess of $400,000,000; Mr. Ralston on increase of sales tax in 1934; retention of excise tax of three per cent and increase in sales tax to eight per cent; making concessions to the taxpayer before the election of 1930; increase in national debt of something less than $100,000,000; borrowing from consolidated revenue fund, 1391; resort to other forms of taxation, and expenditures out of keeping with present conditions in Canada; hardship imposed by eight per cent sales tax; increase in revenue from income tax and decrease from customs revenues, 1392; burden of dual system of provincial and federal income tax; attraction of capital to countries where burden of taxation less heavy, 1393; improvement in position of Canada in world trade and corresponding improvement in trade conditions throughout the world; Mr. Elliott (Middlesex) on improvement in our trade position under present government; steady increase in exports to United Kingdom since 1932, 1394; review in 1935 by Mr. Euler of foreign trade of Canada; increase in trade with United States and decrease in purchases from Great Britain, 1395; inclusion of gold in figures of commodity exports; Review of World Trade, prepared by League of Nations, on expansion of United States foreign trade; improvement in general

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—Con.

Budget—Con.

world trade reflected in trade of all countries, 1396; position with respect to dutiable and free goods from United Kingdom and United States; ability to maintain our foreign trade dependant on our ability to meet competition from countries with cheaper production methods and lower wages and standards of living; thinking in terms of the integrity of Canada, 1397; duty of governments to supply their people with work; recent trade agreement with Great Britain; amendment moved by Mr. Coote to trade agreement of 1932, seeking to tie Canadian dollar to British pound; attitude of Liberal party towards Canada-United Kingdom trade agreement of 1932, 1398; Liberal convention of 1919 and declaration on increase of British preference to fifty per cent of the general tariff, 1399; comparison of agreement of 1932 and present agreement, 1400; notice in agreement of intention of Great Britain to impose duty on agricultural products from this country, 1401; margin of preference under Schedule II; duty of ten per cent on articles under Schedule C of the old agreement; comparison of article 4 of new agreement and article 7 of old agreement; tobacco duties, 1402; marketing of bacon and hams, 1403; elimination of provision with respect to application to tariff board in cases of valuation for duty, 1404; provision in United States trade agreement for appeals to tariff board, 1405, 1406, 1407; steel items; strip steel for manufacture of automobile bodies produced only in the United States, 1408; protecting the woollen industry; extent of the Australian sheep industry, 1409; extent of our imports of textiles from Great Britain; effect on animal fat production of importations of vegetable oils; furniture industry; our financial relations with the provinces; discrimination against Alberta in favour of Manitoba and Saskatchewan in the matter of financial help, 1410; transfer by Canadian Cooperative Wheat Producers, Limited, of wheat to wheat board, 1411; preventing farmers from selling to the wheat board and receiving participation certificates; profits made by speculators in