

Woodsworth, Mr. J. S.—Con.

Budget—Con.

siderations in judging Canada-United Kingdom trade agreement; objection of Mr. Moore to tariffs being made by way of treaty; position of Co-operative Commonwealth Federation on Ottawa agreements of 1932; Sir Arthur Salter on tariff walls; denunciation of policy by Liberals in 1932 and adoption of similar policy to-day, 1739; inclusion of objectionable features in the budget; increasing profits and dividend distributions by corporations; figures given before price spreads commission showing the discrepancy between large profits and wages and employment, 1740; lumber and pulpwood production not of value to Canada because of lack of replacement of timber resources; precautionary measures necessary for conservation of forest wealth; great stimulus given to mining in connection with metals required mainly for war purposes; taxing industries making money out of production of war materials; benefiting from our gold production; urgent domestic problems not being solved to-day because of the position of provinces and municipalities under existing interpretation of British North America Act; investigation by royal commission of provincial and federal jurisdiction, 1747; need for rearrangement of responsibilities and jurisdictions of dominion and provinces; relationship between real wages and monetary control; necessity for a just system of distribution; income tax returns; opportunity to make money under present artificial arrangements of our national economy, 1748; shifting the responsibility for dealing with unemployment from federal to provincial authorities; paying our debts with increased exports, 1749; foreign investments by Canadian interests; control of sugar plantations in Cuba by Royal Bank of Canada; per capita tax burden; hidden profits of textile firms; percentage of our public expenditures due to cost of last war, 1750; large proportion of our expenditure not for public services but in payment of debts, 1751

Amendment (Mr. Bennett), 1446. Attitude of members on unemployment situation determined by position in the house; amendment of Mr.

Woodsworth, Mr. J. S.—Con.

Budget—Con.

Amendment—Con.

Mackenzie (Vancouver) in 1935 on unemployment and of present Prime Minister, 1446; statement of Canadian Welfare Council on relief outlook in Canada; drought situation in the west; low wages and low standard of living prevailing; relief situation in Winnipeg, 1447; demoralizing effect of overcrowding, and housing; Mr. Dunning on thrift, 1448; evasion of taxation by textile industry; principles of program placed before congress by President Roosevelt; unemployment a matter of national emergency; study of our constitutional difficulties by proposed royal commission; leaflet circulated before last election by Liberal party on outstanding immediate problems, 1449; nature and personnel of national employment commission; Liberal pledge to introduce a national system of unemployment insurance; resorting to the constitutional difficulties, 1450; finding money for increased military expenditures, 1451

Business of the house

Chairman, reference to, 1285

Chairman's ruling, appeal from, 2855-56

Precedence for government business, 531

Canada-United Kingdom agreement, 875, 1739

Central Finance Corporation bill, 1847

Christmas and New Year's mail deliveries, 1283

Combines investigation bill, 2416-30

Communism, Quebec laws against, 2291

Cconciliation boards, 652

Coronation contingent, expenses, 709, 1175

Criminal Code Amdt. bills

Death penalty, 347

Motor car hazards, 1628

Trade unions, 1718, 2854

Cuban sugar industry, Canadian investment in, 1750

Curtaillment of civil liberties, 2289-96

Customs Act Amendment bill, values for duties, 2499

Deceased members, tributes to, 9

Dominion-provincial relations commission, 923, 1449

Empire Cotton Mills strike, 652-53

Farm placement plan, 2270, 2609

Fisheries Research Board bill, 2149

Foreign enlistment bill, 1942

Foreign labour unions, 663

Foreign policy, M., 237-64, 557

Proposed committee, 703