ABSTENTIONS

THE HONOURABLE SENATORS

Nil

The Hon. the Speaker pro tempore: Let the doors be opened.

The Hon. the Speaker pro tempore: Honourable senators, the main motion is not actually before us at this time. It is No. 7 on the Order Paper. Is it your wish, however, to proceed with the main motion?

Some Hon. Senators: Agreed.

The Hon. the Speaker pro tempore: Honourable senators, it was moved by Senator Murray, P.C., seconded by Senator Doody:

That the Senate do unite with the House of Commons in the appointment of a—

Some Hon. Senators: Dispend!

The Hon. the Speaker pro tempore: Will those honourable senators in favour of the motion please rise.

Hon. Royce Frith (Deputy Leader of the Opposition): We do not need a standing vote on this. I said earlier, and I want to clarify this, that we wanted our amendments supported, but they have been defeated. However, we are not against the main motion and never have been. We simply wanted those additions made to it. So, it may carry.

The Hon. the Speaker pro tempore: Is it your pleasure, honourable senators, that the main motion shall carry?

Some Hon. Senators: Agreed.

Senator Frith: Perhaps you should call the "Yeas" and "Nays" so that we do not stand.

The Hon. the Speaker pro tempore: If I call the "Yeas" and "Nays" there will then be no question about it. Will those honourable senators in favour of the main motion please say "Yea"?

Some Hon. Senators: Yea.

The Hon. the Speaker pro tempore: Will those honourable senators who are against the main motion please say "Nay"?

Some Hon. Senators: Nay.

The Hon. the Speaker pro tempore: In my opinion, the "Yeas" have it, and I declare the motion carried.

Motion agreed to on division.

BUSINESS OF THE SENATE

Hon. C. William Doody (Deputy Leader of the Government): Honourable senators, I move that all remaining orders, motions and inquiries stand.

The Hon. the Speaker pro tempore: Is it agreed, honourable senators?

Hon. Senators: Agreed.

The Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a.m.
