

MEMOIRS AND ADDRESSES OF TWO DECADES

By DR. J. A. L. WADDELL, Consulting Engineer

Edited by FRANK W. SKINNER, Consulting Engineer

CONTENTS

	PAGE
PREFACE.....
INTRODUCTION.....
BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH.....
CONDENSED REVIEWS OF THE EARLIER "PRINCIPAL PROFESSIONAL PAPERS" OF DR. J. A. L. WADDELL.....
PREFATORY NOTES TO GROUP 1.....
THE ENGINEERING PROFESSION
I. What Can Best Be Done to Advance the Interests of the Engineering Profession in the United States?.....
II. International Engineering Comity and Its Importance to American Industries.....
III. The American Academy of Engineers—Its Aims and Objects.....
IV. La Vie de l'Ingénieur Civil
V. The Bridge Engineer and His Work.....
VI. The Engineer of the Future.....
VII. The Engineering Profession Fifty Years Hence.....
VIII. The Relation of the Engineer to Scientific Investigation and to the General Public.....
IX. Engineering Research.....
PREFATORY NOTES TO GROUP 2.....
ETHICS OF ENGINEERING
I. Engineering Ideals.....
II. Two Addresses to the Engineering Students of the University of Bar- celona:.....
Advice Concerning Life as an Undergraduate.....
Advice Concerning Life After Graduation.....	