

WILLIAM BROWN'S CONTRIBUTIONS TOWARDS THE NEW SYSTEM OF POLITICAL ECONOMY.

1. Thoughts on Paper Currency and Lending on Interest, as affecting the prosperity of Labour, Commerce, and Manufactures, 240 pages, cloth, 75 cents.
2. A New Catechism on Political Economy, 68 pages, 15 cents.
3. No Fund in Commerce or Labour for Lending on Interest, 11 pages, 5 cents.
4. The Church, our Modern System of Commerce, and the fulfilment of Prophecy, 24 pages, 10 cents.
5. The Claims of Capital considered, 36 pages (edition at present exhausted).
6. The Specie Basis as related to Industry and the Currency, 7 pages, 5 cents.
7. The Money Question in the United States, 15 pages, 5 cents.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS :

"The topics are considered with great thoroughness and independence of thought.... This work ought to be attentively considered."—N. Y. Tablet.

"This work seems to us to come right to the core of the vexed labour question, and solves many difficult problems."—Dubuque Daily Times.

"This work deserves careful reading and to be appreciated it must not only be read but studied.... We will draw from its pages hereafter, and in the meantime commend it especially to the young men of the country in whatever vocation of life they may be engaged."—Memphis Avalanche.

"Ch. 10 qui traite des prêts à intérêts, est admirablement raisonné—une critique admirable. Nous aurions désiré un plus long article au Ch. 15 qui traite des emprunts ecclésiastiques. Nous recommandons l'étude de ce court chapitre comme suggérant des profondes pensées."—L'Aurore, Montréal.

"An able treatise."—N. Y. Home Journal.

"He has read much and thought much; and besides all considerations of natural reason by which to sustain his position, he draws largely from the Scriptures for argument.... He utters much truth deserving of earnest consideration."—Boston Christian Register.

"He has a notably clear style. The philosophy of his views is very discernible, and so far as can be from being obtruse or abstract. The interests of industry, and of those whose lives are given to industry, lie, evidently, very near his heart. He brings everything in political economy to the test of its relation to labour, and makes labour the one single founda-