

are quite right in supposing that I still take the deepest interest in everything that concerns
the welfare of Canada.
It is time now that Canada should have a
literature of its own,
and I am glad to think that you should have so nobly shown the way.

Believe me, my dear
Miss Crawford, with