

convinced that the Anglo-Canadians and the French-Canadians will appreciate the advantages of their position. Set side by side like a great family, their contact will produce a happy spirit of emulation. The diversity of race will in fact, believe me, contribute to the common prosperity."

The utterance of the great French Canadian Father of Confederation breathes the spirit of true Canadianism. May it be heeded by all Canadians in this critical period of our national history !

JOHN BOYD.
