

CHAPTER	PAGE
XV. TRUSTS AND COMBINES UNDER CONSERVATIVE AND LIBERAL REGIMES AT OTTAWA—1879-1911	120
A National Policy Bug-a-Boo of Forty Years Ago Recalled.
XVI. TRUSTS UNDER FREE TRADE AND UNDER PROTECTION . . .	130
Ample Statute Created Opportunities for Trusts in Canada—Feeble and Ineffective Anti-Combine Legislation of both Political Parties at Ottawa.
XVII. THE PRIVILEGED CLASS IN A NEW PLACE	139
* Its Frustration of the Reciprocity Agreement of 1911.
XVIII. OVER-PLAYING THE GAME	152
The Gains and Losses of the Privileged Class from its Audacity in 1911.
XIX. ACCEPTANCE OF RECIPROCITY BY THE CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT	164
Third Success of the Grain Growers' Movement in Dominion Politics.
XX. ATTITUDE OF PRIVILEGED CLASS AND OF GOVERNMENTS TOWARDS THE COMMON PEOPLE OF CANADA	174
XXI. TOLLS NO. I AND TOLLS NO. II	191
XXII. TOLL NO. III	204
Penalty Duties and Farm Implements—The Grain Grower and Farmer's Burden
XXIII. LABOUR AND NATIONAL POLICY TARIFFS	217
Labour under Protection, as under Free Trade, gets what it can Fight for, and what it can Hold.
XXIV. DEMOCRATIC CONTROL OF FISCAL POLICY	229