

22nd. That the doors and gates erected by the Committee, the more effectually to separate the male and female wards, shall be kept constantly locked.

23rd. Any person violating any of the above rules, shall be reported in writing by the Superintendent to the Weekly Committee,