

CONTENTS.

IX.

House of Commons—Amendment of Bill—Criticism of Mr. Scott—Withdrawal of Bill—Reception of Privy Council Report in N. S. W., in Port Phillip, in Van Dieman's Land—Opinion of Lieutenant-Governor Denison—Criticism of this opinion—Attitude of South Australia—Debate in Legislative Council—Opinion of Lieutenant-Governor Young—Popular Discussion—Review of Australian opinion on a Federal Assembly and a Uniform Tariff—Grey's Despatch, 1849—English Parliamentary interest in Colonial affairs—Society for the Reform of Colonial Government—Australian Colonies Bill, 1850—Analysis of its Clauses and Comparison with Bill of 1849—Debate in Parliament—Amendment and subsequent Withdrawal of Federal Clauses—Character of the Debate in Parliament—Grey's Despatch, 1850—Reasons for failure of Earl Grey's scheme	58—226
---	--------

CHAPTER III.

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

Appointment of a Governor-General—Nature of the office—Australian opinion regarding the Appointment—Influence on Federal Movement—Earl Grey leaves office—Effect of his Departure on Federal scheme—Influences that rendered the Office non-effective—Suspension of the office	227—233
--	---------

CHAPTER IV.

THE PERIOD OF CONSTITUTIONAL COMMITTEES.

Federation in the background—The Anti-Transportation League—Its influence on the Federal Movement—Agitation for Responsible Government—Federal Proposal of the N. S. W. Constitutional Committee, 1853—Influence of, Wentworth and Thompson—Nature of the scheme of Union—Popular opinion regarding Proposal—Recommendation of Victorian Constitutional Committee—Character of the Recommendation—Debate in the Legislative Council—Attitude of the other Colonies—Refusal of Lord John Russell to take Federal action—Reasons for inaction	254—281
---	---------

CHAPTER V.

THE PERIOD OF PARLIAMENTARY REPORTS.

Renewed interest in Question—Economic and Social factors tending to Union—Dr. Lang and the movement for Australian Independence—Influence on Federation—Articles of Rev. J. West—Federal propaganda of the Press—Personal character of the Movement—Thompson revives Question—Policy of Parker Ministry—General Association for the Australian Colonies—Memorial to the Secretary of State—Discussion of the character of the Memorial and Draft Bill—Reply of Mr. Labouchere—Mr. McCombie's Resolution and debate in Legislative Council of Victoria—Mr. Gavan Duffy—Attitude towards Independence—Select Committee, 1857—Report of the Committee—Nature of the Report—Debate in the Legislature—Mr. Haines' despatch to other Colonies—Thompson's Select Committee of Legislative Council of N. S. W.—Debate
--	--