

partner of John Braithwalte, employs compressed air to transmit motive-power, devises centrifugal blower, 221; invents surface-condenser, places machinery of Victory below water-line, invents steam fire engine, 222; "Novelty" locomotive, 223; steam-jet motor, 224; over-estimates value in energy of fuel, regenerator, invents caloric engine, 225; marriage, 228; aloofness and its penalty, designs screw propeller, tests it with success, 229; designs a direct-acting engine for propulsion, alliance with Robert F. Stockton, 230; goes to New York, 232; designs steam frigate Princeton, wins prize for fire engine, propellers widely adopted, 232; fatality on the Princeton, 233; reinforces guns with hoops, 234; Government refuses payment for designing Princeton, 235; writes in distress to John D. Sargent, naturalized in 1848, 236; devises a pyrometer, builds large caloric engines, 237; designs and builds the Ericsson caloric ship, 238; wrecked, 239; its subsequent career, 240; reviews caloric principle with confidence, many small caloric engines used with profit, 241; Swedish songs, 242; an accomplished draftsman, 243; designs, names, and builds the Monitor, 244; details, 247; her fight with the Merrimac, 249; congratulations, 251; writes John Bourne defending Monitor design, 253; plans six monitors for U. S. Navy, 256; designs the Dictator and the Puritan, 257; plans series shallow gun-boats, 258; gives Sweden a Rodman gun and plans vessels for her defense, designs gun-boats for Cuba, 259; rotary gun-carriage, devises torpedo, 262; plans the Destroyer, with submarine gun, 263; plans vessel for coast defense, 265; improvements of steam engine reviewed, 266; love of country, 267; honors from Sweden, monument in birth-place, 267; gift to Jonas Olsson, a playmate, gift to starving Swedes, death of mother, 268; generosity to kindred and friends, a degree from University of Lund, solar motor, 269, 270; homes in New York, 271; personal traits, 272; methods of thought and work, simple regimen and housekeeping, 273; serenaded by Swedish societies, 274; last illness, death, remains borne to Sweden for interment, 275

F

Farragut, Admiral D. G., on monitors, 252
Fisher, George, advances capital to Elias Howe, 348
Fitch, John, steamboat, 7, 55
Forest Products Laboratory, experiments with woods for paper pulp, 379
Fort, Arthur, sued by Miller & Whitney, 83
Foucault, typewriter, 327
Fox, Gustavus Vasa, assistant secretary U. S. Navy, supports John Ericsson, 248
Francis, William, typewriter, 323; inked ribbon, 326
Franklin Institute Journal on reaper patents, 296; on Tilghman sand blast, 381
Fulton, Robert, his steamboat monopoly abolished, 17; birth, 41; early life, 41; admires West's pictures, 42; learns gunsmithing, 42; builds a boat driven by paddle-wheels, 43; practises painting, 44; sailed