CAN LOCALITIES SELECT MODE OF LIGHTING?

City's Power Commission is Anxious to Meet Wishes But Uncertain as to Practicability.

At a special meeting of the hydroelectric commission last night there was a lengthy discussion over those streets on which the residents want underground wiring and cluster lights, underground wiring and cluster lights, or, at least, some lights more ornamental than the present standard in those districts.

The commission, while favoring the idea of allowing freedom of selection, were undecided as to how the payments for the more expensive work could be made, and, in fact, whether they could be made at all. Two ways were suggested, either that the residents make, a cash payment for the full amount, or the work be done on a local improvement taxation basis. But before taking any action it was decided to have Engineer Aitken report further. The question of the extension of the cluster lights in the business districts also came up, and the same difficulty was met with. It was decided to have Mr. Aitken report further on this question also.

The masons went on strike May 1, and only resumed work a few weeks ago.

OPIUM WORST FOE OF MISSIONS IN CHINA

Grip of Drug-Rap for Colonizing Methods.

The terrible ravages of the opium traffic in Central China formed the topic of an address filled with earnestness delivered by Mrs. James Smith, returned missionary, at yesterday's session of the Christian and Missionary Conference in Parkdale Tabernacle

The horrors wrought by this most harmful of drugs, declared the speaker, could not be overestimated, nor could the stories of sorrow, pain and anguish resulting from thousands upon thousands of men falling victims ter on the grounds of ill-health, and suggested Raymond Poincare, ex-minister of finance, for that office. M Poincare at first was reluctant to accept the heavy responsibility of that post, for which he feared he was not sufficiently prepared, but agreed to give the matter his consideration, and answer to-morrow. In event of his answer to-morrow. In event of his refusal M. Deselves, prefect of the Seine, will be asked to take the foreign office.

While as yet nothing definitely has been decided upon, it is understood that M. Caillaux, in addition to the premiership, will take charge of the ministry of the interior; M. Doumergue or M. Cruppi, justice; L. L. Klotz, finance; Eugene Etienne or Adolphe Messimy, war; M. Delcasse, marine; Jules A. T. Steege, public instruction; M. Augagneur, public works; M. Chaumet, commerce; Jules Pams, agriculture; M. Messimy or M. Lebrun, colonies; M. Renoult, labor.

Of these MM. Cruppi, Delcasse, Steege, Pams and Messimy were in the Monis cabinet; MM. Klotz and Doumergue were members of the Briand cabinets, while M. Etienne is an exminister of the interior.
