SENIOR SCHEDULE DRAWN UP BY R. F. J. EXECUTIVE

First Meeting of the Season Held Last Night—Rugby Season Opens September 29.

The first meeting of the O.R.F. executive was held at the Chop House, East King-street, last night, with the following members present: President, Mr. DuMont, Hamilton; George Ballard, Hamilton; T. McLaughlin, Peterboro; W. A. Hewitt, Argos; J. K. Forsyth, W. Graham, Brockville, and Secretary J. B. Hay, Toronto.

It was a good day for the hockey. Four of the favorites finished where it would have been expected, but the rest of the race was a close driving finish, some reservations being made as to the demonstration before the judges when the numbers appeared. Diamond won the Epsom Handicap by a small margin, that would have been wiped out altogether had he not received an equal break at the start.

It was a good day for the hockey. Four of the favorites finished where it would have been expected, but the rest of the race was a close driving finish, some reservations being made as to the demonstration before the judges when the numbers appeared.
