SOMETHING REALLY NEW

In the High-Grade Modern Piano Line is Announced. A piane with a case whose decorations

Oriental and the colonial styles, is a special attraction at the Bell Piano Pariors, 146 Yonge-street. The instrument, style I... of the new series, is described in detail on another page of The World to-day, and the description cannot fail to awaken the Count Von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg, the late curiosity of this music-loving community, who will, it is pretty certain, flock to see the beautiful plane.

Count voli lasticate violations of the Court of St. James, who died here Nov. 22, and whose the beautiful plane.

There will be a Thanksgiving service at 11 a.m. to-day in Grace Church, Elm-street. The rector will preach.

SHIPPING MEN IND GNANT.

epartment Removed Buoys Lower St. Lawrence Too Soon. Montreal, Nov. 27.-The shipping men of Montreal are highly indignant over the action of the government in allowing the officials of the Marine Department to reofficials of the Marine Department to remove the lights and buoys below Quebec, before the last of the steamships had passed down from the ancient Capital.

On the floor of the Board of Trade today, the members who are interested in the shipping trade condemned the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and those conceted with his department, unstintingly. With the Montreal shipping men, this aggravating circumstance is by no means new, as, in years gone by, the departnew, as, in years gone by, the depart-ment having such matters in charge has been asked to keep the buoys in place for an additional period, but always in vain.

DEER HUNTER'S STRANGE DEATH.

Mystery in Shooting of William Johnson Near Ashland, Wis. Ashland, Wis., Nov. 27.-William John son of this city met death in a mysterious manner while hunting deer twenty miles east of here. Johnson had killed a deer, and was dragging it out of a gully by the antiers. Just as he reached the top of the incline, a bullet struck him squarely on the top of the head, killing him in-stantly. Whether he was killed purposely, Contractors Looking Over Ground at Winnipeg and Victoria. Montreal, Nov. 27 .- The Canadian Pacific having decided to enlarge the hotels at Vancouver and Banff, Montreal con-tractors have been out to the Coast, looktractors have been out to the Coast, looking over the ground, and also familiarizing themselves with Winnipeg and Victoria surroundings, where, it is believed, hotels will be erected before long.

The hotel at Vancouver will be extended 115 feet in length and 104 feet deep, and will be six storeys high. So soon as the extension is completed, the existing house will be substituted by the store of the extension.

will be rebuilt, a replica of the extension, the whole forming a very handsome structure, after the Renalssance style. The Banff extension will be 250 feet long by 160 feet wide, and will be an exact counterpart of the present house, five stories high, with 80 rooms. It will be an entirely separate house, to guard against fire, and all the bedrooms will have baths attached, and water laid in from one of the hot springs in the vicinity. The extension will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.
