AN EFFECTIVE ADVERTISEMENT. The joint gift of $80,000 per annum from Lord Strathcona and Lord Mountstephen to King Edward's London Hospital Fund constitutes the best sort of advertisement for Canada. Both the generous donors left the Old Land as young men, and piled up vast for tunes in Canada. The English papers, in commenting on the donation, are printing columns concerning the ronantic careers of the two Canadian nillionaires, and such literature forms he most effective immigration matter that could possibly be circulated in the British Isles. The development of the country and the development of the country and the pose of taking a decisive vote, after which, if necessary, a fresh appeal might be made to the country. But the tactical advantage of the government, with its financial resources, means of influence and machinery, pretty clearly lay the other way. The ing the mountains. The railways went in first, and the lumber camps, the farming settlements and the mining industries sprang up afterwards. The people and the money followed the railways in, and developed the tributary country, and the railways took what they produced to market, to lake ports or to the seaboard. And hardly less important as a factor in the development of North America has been the growth of steamship tonnage on the rivers, the Great Lakes and on the contiguous oceans.

If the extension of transportation facilities has been important to North America in the past, Canada has much to hope for from the development of these lines of communication in the future. Canada's railway mileage, the already great, is yet really in its infancy. The Dominion boasts only one transcontinental line as yet, but there is room for three such routes. The Canadan Northern is at work paralleling the Canadan Pacific across the prairies, and the Lake Superior and Rocky Mountain Navigation Company designs to open up a third outlet for the granary of the empire. And there will be others.

In Town or Village

Can make $1.00 a week Selling The Sunday World.

We will supply the capital the first week to any lad who will say he means business.

We will send 12 copies of The Sunday World to any boy. They sell readily at 5 cents each. The paper is 32 pages-finely illustrated. When these are sold, send here 36 cents for another dozen, or 3 cents for each copy wanted.

The Sunday World sells on sight. It is a bright publication, and has already attained a large sale in Canada, having routed the American publications which formerly spread themselves in Canada.

In Hamilton 500 copies are sold. In Berlin 110 copies are disposed of every week. In Stratford 115, and in Toronto Junction 100. In some of the smaller towns and villages we send 50 and 75 copies. In all 14,200 are printed every week. These figures give an idea of the money which active, plucky boys can make. Any list of 50 will net the seller $1.00 each week for a few hours work.
