In presenting this report of the Sabbath School we first desire to express, on behalf of the Teachers, our deep sense of thankfulness to God for the great opportunity of sowing the seed of the Kingdom in young hearts throughout the past year. While we know that the sowing has been performed with less energy and more faint-heartedness, with less faith and more faltering, with less prayer and more inconstancy, than entire consecration to one of the best and most fruitful forms of Christian service should permit of, still we believe that by and by the harvest will be reaped. Let us hope and pray that it may be an early, rich, and abundant one.

In the last report it was intimated that an effort would be made to increase the size of our Library. A collection taken up by the Congregation and amounting to $52.62 was handed to our Treasurer by the Treasurer of the Temporal Committee. This was supplemented by a special collection in aid of the Library, taken up in the Sabbath School, and amounting to $25.00, and with these two sums a substantial addition will be made to our inadequately equipped Library.

The efficiency of the Teaching Staff has been seriously impaired by the withdrawal during the year of several faithful and able teachers, but we sincerely hope that the Sabbath School has only for a time been deprived of the services of C. R. Cunningham, D. Masson, Mrs. Alexander and Miss Blackburn. The Sabbath School needs more teachers if its work is to be kept up to the highest standard of efficiency.
