THE LATE MRS. GLASS. The death of Mrs. Gilbert Glass occurred yesterday morning at the family residence, 461 Dundas street, after a long illness, which caused her confinement to the house for the past two years. Deceased was the last remaining sister of the late Rev. Wm. Dignam. She was born in Ireland, and came to this country nearly half a century ago with her parents, who settled near St. Johns. Her marriage with Mr. Glass took place on Oct. 23, 1856. They had only one child, Willie, who met his death, with his fiance, Miss Cooper, at the time of the Vicdevout and much beloved member of the Dundas Center Methodist Church for many years. Mr. Glass, who survives his wife, has been connected with Reid's Crystal Hall for the past 22 years, and will have the sympathy of the entire community. Rev. The drama was a revelation to many, some of the acting being of a quality little sus-pected by the residents of the asylum to exist in their midst. The concert part of the entertainment was as follows: A song, "I'll Be Your Sweet-heart," by Mr. Allan McConnel, which was received with hearty applause, as are all McConnell's efforts to please, he being a great stage favorite among his associates; a recitation and a song by Miss Maud Lockhart, both of which were characterized by pathos of ex-pression, clearness of enunciation and sweetness of tone; a cornet solo, by Mr. Harry Wooster, than whom it would be difficult to find a more accomplished performer on this instrument.
