New Vitality and New Life for the Aged

IN the evening of life, when the strength is gradually decreasing, and the vital powers are waning, Wincarnis exerts a powerful influence in creating new strength, and in surcharging the body with new vitality, because Wincarnis possesses a four-fold power. It is a Tonic, a Restorative, a Blood-maker, and a Nerve Food, all combined.

Therefore, Wincarnis creates new strength, new blood, new nerve force, and new vitality. And this four-fold power, acting upon the system at one time, promotes a feeling of new life throughout the whole body. That is the reason why over 10,000 Doctors recommend Wincarnis. And it is also the reason why Wincarnis is the one thing that elderly people should take to restore their decreasing strength, and to revive their waning vitality. Also, at Wincarnis does not contain depressing drugs, it can be safely taken by old people and the weakest invalid.

Wincarnis is a positive necessity for elderly people, because it promptly promotes new strength and quickly creates new vitality.

at a time of life when the vital powers most need assistance.

Those of us who are in the spring-time of life, should remember what one of the "old folks at home" once said: "Wincarnis is a tonic, a restorative, a blood-maker, and a nerve food, all combined."

Remember that Wincarnis has a world-wide reputation of over 30 years' standing, that it has given new health and new life to countless thousands of sufferers, that it is used in Hospitals throughout the world, and that it is recommended by over 10,000 Doctors, you will readily understand why Wincarnis is invaluable to those who are Weak, Anemic, Nervous, Run-down, to Invalids and old people, and to all who are depressed and out of sorts.

THRILLING DEEDS OF CANADA'S BOYS WIN DECORATIONS

Heroic Feats in Drive Cause Special Mention

FOR OFFICER AND MAN

One Captain Alone Takes Seventy of the Bosches Prisoners.

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, via London, April 19. (By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press.)

Where all the soldiers have been heroic it is difficult to single out actions which stamp the men who perform them as the bravest of the brave, but from the records which may result in the decoration of some of the heroes of the Battle of Vimy Ridge, and now permitted to make mention of examples of conspicuous valor and place honor where it belongs.

A private, during the fierce struggle for the hill, the second of the battle, earned a decoration for a man. The advance was made in a blinding snowstorm, which, fortunately, carried the wind into the faces of the enemy in their carefully guarded position on the hill slope. As our men advanced they were met by a murderous fire from a machine gun operated and guarded by a group of a dozen of the enemy. Our men were falling fast as the hail of lead from the machine gun swept the hillside. Then, with utter disregard to his own safety, this private rushed forward, tackling alone the machine gun. Making progress from shell hole to shell hole, he reached a point within thirty yards of the enemy gun. He threw a bomb that distance, which killed or wounded part of the machine gun crew. Then, with a final rush, he reached the position and bayoneted the five men remaining with the gun. This splendid deed of gallantry saved the situation and the lives of many men.

Officer Takes Seventy.

Another episode was that when an captain of a battalion engaged in the assault on the hill, went forward with a scout, to secure Germans who were trapped in dugouts before they could make their escape. He left the scout stationed near the entrance of the large dugout, with instructions to shoot anyone emerging if he did not himself return. When the officer reached the bottom of the dugout he found 70 Germans in it, who surrendered at his demand. In the face of so many prisoners it was impossible that their captor should turn his back on them and ascend the dugout stairs, as doubtless he would have been promptly shot in the back. With his revolver in hand he stationed himself at the foot of the stairs and ordered the prisoners by.

Lieutenant Saves Situation.

A lieutenant, after the fall of Vimy had been carried by the Canadians, went out scouting 2,500 yards in front of our victorious men. By personal observation he discovered the enemy establishing a line that would have been dangerous to our further advance. Returning to our line he took out a patrol with him and drove the enemy off. The record shows that he killed eight of the enemy. (Were it not that these are many similar incidents are touched for by witnesses they might be regarded as a manuscript continuation of the adventures of the "Three Musketeers," some of whose deeds Dumas staged in three vast districts. Among others whose bravery was so conspicuous as to warrant bringing it to the attention of the authorities is a Canadian soldier, who, after the members of his gun crew were killed, operated the gun until he was himself killed. He turned back the attack. The lone machine gunner swept away the last of the group at a distance of fifteen yards.

A Signaller's Fortitude.

From his position, a signaller, severely wounded, continued to perform his duties until the close of the action, and when the telephone lines were destroyed, carried messages over the shell-torn ground, though among his injuries was an unmet broken arm. A major, given the other officers of his battalion had been killed or wounded, handled it alone and sent back a report to his battalion headquarters. The fighting on both sides was vicious. These are but a few incidents many of which would fill a volume and more come to light daily. On Wednesday of this week a Canadian party found the bodies of two gallant officers who on the first day of the battle had been killed. They were what were the enemy lines on a scouting expedition and lost their lives.

HUNGARIAN SOCIALISTS

ASK CENTRAL POWERS TO STATE TERMS OF PEACE

Gene, Switzerland, via Paris, April 20.—The Hungarian Socialists have adopted resolutions at a secret session demanding that the central powers make public their peace conditions, excluding all foreign annexations according to the Tagewacht, the official organ of the Swiss Social Democracy. The convention was the first to be held since 1913 and several resolutions of a drastic and even revolutionary character were adopted. The convention called upon the Hungarian Government to abolish all restrictions on public gatherings, to restore the freedom of the press and to furnish genuine proof of the honorableness and sincerity of the desire for peace. The resolutions declare that peace terms should provide for the obligatory reference of all disputes to an international tribunal, gradual disarmament of all nations, and the free economic, national and cultural development of all peoples and the removal of causes of friction between the nations and their governments. Demands were also made that all states make public every international agreement, place foreign policies under the control of parliaments and abolish secret diplomacy.

WHY ROMANONES QUIT

Spanish Premier Held Government's Power Too Limited. Madrid, April 20.—Count Romanones, in tendering his resignation to King Alfonso, said he was convinced that the defence of the lives and interest of Spaniards could not be assured if Government policy continued bound by the limitation hitherto existing. The premier declared that he felt compelled by his conscience to resign. He added that he was influenced by the consideration that Spain would lose its position as a moral leader if she and the races issued from her appeared to be divided at a time destined for the future.

FOSTER ACTING PREMIER

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Says That Canada Can Best Understand Decision.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, April 19.—The United States was welcomed as a war ally of Canada by the Government and Opposition in Parliament today. After two months' adjournment to enable Premier Borden to cross the Atlantic and sit upon the imperial war council, the House resumed business with Sir George Foster, acting for the Government, Sir Robert Borden still being in England. For a hundred years, said Sir George Foster, the United States has been able to keep aloof from the struggles of Europe and in a half-century years the United States had been able to keep out of the present bloody struggle, though the feelings of the American people had been shocked by the invasion of Belgium and German infringement of the rights of the United States.

Ends Germany's Hope. The United States had no territory to gain and no selfish motive in entering the war, but, finally the infringement of rights had caused a hundred million peace-loving, liberty-loving and democratic people to feel that they could no longer remain neutral. With the wealth of men and resources which the United States brought to the struggle the hope of Germany for success had vanished. The action of the United States made it possible for Italy, France and Russia to press on with a feeling of confidence. Probably a large United States army could not find its way to the front for nine months or a year. But the gathering of the American forces would go on, and finally would strike with fresh virile force and finally secure victory for democracy over autocracy.

Solidarity of Democracy.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, following, declared that the entrance of the United States into the war was one of the most important events in the history of the world. President Wilson had acted with great wisdom and prudence. His careful action had brought the whole American people to the side of the Allies. Canada more than any other country was interested in this latest action of the United States, and Canada was the country which best could understand and appreciate the late decision of her great democratic neighbor. The action of the United States showed that no nation could keep to itself; it demonstrated the solidarity of the democratic nations of the world in meeting the menace of the doctrine that might is right; it marked the forward progress of the noble spirit of the brotherhood of man.

Reference to Duesch.

The death of the Duchess of Connaught, which occurred during the adjournment, was fittingly referred to in Parliament today by Sir George Foster for the Government, and by Sir Wilfrid Laurier for the Opposition. Hon. Albert Seymour is again in Parliament. The late speaker, who won his election in London after being appointed to the Cabinet, was introduced to the new speaker and the House general by the speaker and Hon. Mr. Pains.

U. S. SOLDIERS SHOOT MEXICAN SNIPER IN RETURN FOR VOLLEY

General Bell Says Men Must "Shoot to Kill" in Such Cases.

EL PASO, Texas, April 19.—Snipers who fired at an American sentry stationed at the village in a southern part of the city were fired upon in return by a squad of United States soldiers late today. One Mexican was seen to fall after the volley had been fired across the border.

When Mexican Consul-General reported the affair to Brig.-Gen. George B. Johnston, a Socialist, who told him that the American sentry "had been fired upon and had obeyed orders in returning the fire," he ordered the outpost to shoot to kill when fired upon, said Gen. Johnston. "I will court-martial a man who does across the border first, and I will also court-martial one who fails to return the fire when he is fired upon."

AMERICAN ROMAN CATHOLICS PLEDGE FAITH TO WILSON

Cardinal Gibbons Sends Message of Loyalty to President.

BALTIMORE, April 19.—The Roman Catholic archbishops of the United States have addressed a letter to President Wilson, pledging the loyalty of the Catholic hierarchy, the clergy and people of that faith in this country to the president and the Government, and accepting "wholeheartedly and unreservedly" the declaration of Congress that this country to be in a state of war.

The letter, which was adopted by the archbishops at their annual meeting in the Catholic University at Washington yesterday, was signed by all the archbishops who were present, eight in number, the remaining six being unavoidably absent. It was sent to the president today by Cardinal Gibbons, chairman of the meeting. "We stand ready," the prelate's letter in saying, "we and all the flock committed to us, to co-operate in every way possible with our president and our national Government, to the end that the great and holy cause of liberty may triumph, and that our beloved country may emerge from this time of test stronger and nobler than ever."

GERMANS PLAN TO TURN RUSS RIGHT FROM GULF

PETROGRAD, April 19.—Via London.—German preparations to attack the northern front, supported by a German fleet, reports of which appear to be well founded, bear out a news office statement that the German means to march on Petrograd.

The preparations consist of the massing of troops on the Dvinsk-Riga front, and the concentration of transports, warships and shallow-draft vessels in the Baltic ports. A portion of the German fleet is reported to have moved from Kiel to Libau.

It is regarded here as extremely probable that the plan is to cut off Petrograd from the active army. The German efforts to spread discontent in the Russian army have developed an ingenious device of luring soldiers by the German offer of an attack on the Russian northern front was made public by the Russian general staff.

The opinion is here expressed, however, that the Germans intend to gain and no selfish motive in entering the war, but, finally the infringement of rights had caused a hundred million peace-loving, liberty-loving and democratic people to feel that they could no longer remain neutral. With the wealth of men and resources which the United States brought to the struggle the hope of Germany for success had vanished. The action of the United States made it possible for Italy, France and Russia to press on with a feeling of confidence. Probably a large United States army could not find its way to the front for nine months or a year. But the gathering of the American forces would go on, and finally would strike with fresh virile force and finally secure victory for democracy over autocracy.

RUSSIAN GENERAL TELLS SOLDIERS TO GO EASY IN DISMISSAL OF OFFICERS

Petrograd, April 19, via London, April 20.—Gen. Gurko, commander on the western front, has issued a proclamation to the soldiers declaring that the election, arrest and dismissal of officers of various ranks by soldiers' councils is an undesirable practice and threatens serious consequences. Gen. Gurko declares the right to appoint officers is accorded only to soldiers in Petrograd and Moscow, who are directly responsible for the revolution and that even the Council of Soldiers and Deputies admits this principle. The general points out that the application of the practice to the active army leads to disorganization and puts the responsibility for military operations on the men in the ranks. In a supplementary order Gen. Gurko increases the number of men eligible to furlough to seven in each hundred, the soldiers to determine themselves who shall be given the privilege.
