LIBERAL LOOKS LIKE BEST BET OF SIX N. WATERLOO CHOICES

All Getting Good Hearing, But Snider and Asmusen Slipping Ahead.

KITCHENER, Oct. 15.—With six candidates in the field in North Waterloo uncertainty is being expressed as to the chances of each to lead the polls Monday. The Liberals, Snider and Asmusen, however, look to be the best bet. Reports from the rural sections show all candidates meeting an attentive hearing and having good crowds at each meeting. There is not much enthusiasm in Kitchener or Waterloo in connection with the elections, a general spirit of indifference seemingly being manifested by the rank and file of the voters.

There have been a few meetings in the city and these have had a negligible influence. Local newspapers are not drawing sharp lines on the candidates. The News-Record, which was recently bought out by the Independent Liberal interests, is quietly supporting Nicholas Asmusen and is more or less silent on the referendum issue, as is also its competitor, the Daily Telegraph.

The candidates all express confidence, but most of them are uncertain regarding the women's vote. Gavin Barrad, the farmer candidate who is making strong talk in favor of prohibition, seems to be finding more favor with the women's opponents.

KERN-ENGLERT.
Miss Josephine Englert and Gordon Kern were married at St. Mary's Church here this morning. Rev. Joseph Englert of Hamilton, brother of the bride, performed the ceremony. Geo. Englert of Toronto, and Miss Carrie Lang of Kitchener were the attendants. Following a reception Mr. and Mrs. Kern left for a wedding trip to Buffalo. Upon their return they will reside in the city.

MINE WORKERS' LEADERS AGREE TO CONFERENCE

Strike Order Has Gone Out, But Relations Are Not Severed.

Called for November 1

All Union Bituminous Miners Ordered To Quit At Midnight, October 31.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15.—After approving and sending on its way to the four thousand local unions in the country the official order calling on all union bituminous coal miners in the United States to cease coal production at midnight October 31, John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, left here today for Washington to attend a conference, called by Secretary of Labor Wilson, with Thomas L. Brewster, president of the Coal Operators' Association. Mr. Lewis will arrive in Washington late tomorrow.

Before leaving the city, Mr. Lewis declared that the only thing that could prevent a strike of the miners on November 1 would be the reaching of an agreement between the miners and operators' representatives before that date.

The miners' head would make no predictions as to the result of the conference in Washington. In the meantime, he said, preparations for the strike would be continued as if the conference were not in progress.

INVITATION ACCEPTED.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—Secretary of Labor Wilson announced tonight that he had assumed jurisdiction under the law as a mediator in the controversy between the coal miners and operators of the central competitive fields, which has resulted in a call by the United Mine Workers of America for a strike on November 1.

Secretary Wilson said that both John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers, and Thomas L. Brewster, president of the Coal Operators' Association, had accepted his invitation to confer with him and that the conference would be held here Friday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15.—The order calling all union bituminous coal miners of the country to "cease production of coal at midnight on Friday, October 31, 1919," was issued from the international headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America here at noon today. The order is signed by John L. Lewis, acting president, and William Green, secretary-treasurer, of the miners.

The official strike call permits local unions to assign "a sufficient number of men to remain at work to insure the proper care and protection of all mining property, in conformity with the provisions of district agreements. It also urges that strict co-operation be given the operator to prevent injury to property," and asserts that "under no circumstances should this rule be violated or set aside by local unions."

STAGE ALL SET FOR THE PRINCE'S VISIT TO COBALT TODAY
Town in Flutter of Excitement Last Night.

TO INSPECT VETERANS
Three Candidates in Election Contest and Wives to Meet H. R. H.

COBALT, Oct. 15.—The stage is all set for the reception here tomorrow morning of the Prince of Wales. Today has been devoted to completing the preparations for the royal visitor, and the town is in a flutter of excitement tonight. Flags are flying from the welcome arch on the Coleman Township bridge and from the staffs of the public buildings, and many private residences and places of business have been gaily decorated, and many colored streamers have been stretched across the streets along which the royal party will pass. Mayor McKinnon will read the address of welcome on behalf of the municipality of Cobalt and Coleman, and will draw attention to some of the deeds performed by the citizens of the silver camp during the war.

The prince is to inspect the returned soldiers, who will be drawn up at the station to greet him, together with the boy scouts and cadets. Arrangements were made today to allow the prince's highness to pay a short visit to the high school, where all the pupils of the different schools in camp will parade to greet the heir to the throne. The prince will spend a few minutes at the school, inspecting the ranks of the children and meeting the teachers.

Archbishop Thorne of the Anglican diocese of Algoma arrived from Sault Ste. Marie this afternoon, having made the trip especially to meet the Prince of Wales. At the O'Brien mine the prince is to be presented with a very fine specimen of high grade ore, mounted on a mahogany plaque, with a shield of Cobalt silver, suitably inscribed. The whole inclosed in a leather case. The three candidates in the election fight, with their wives, have been given invitations to meet the prince. The navy league branch here will have out its decorated ship, and will hold a tag-day tomorrow.

U.S. "Dry" Measure Ready For Signature Of President Wilson
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—The prohibition enforcement bill was signed today by Vice-President Marshall and Speaker Gillett for immediate transmission to President Wilson. The president will have ten days from the time it reaches the White House to sign it. Should he fail to act within that time, it automatically would become a law without his signature.
